Police Report

The Grounds Department is offering a $25 reward for information leading to identification of vandals responsible for last week's destruction of a project on East Campus, said Landscape Assistant Emily Levine.

Levine said the department spent a week installing landscape bricks south of the College of Home Economics building. Thursday morning, the bricks had been scattered.

Vandalism on East Campus is unusual, Levine said.

The following incidents also were reported to the UNL police between midnight and 10 p.m. Monday:

12:40 a.m. — Prowler reported near 716 N. 16th St. Officers were unable to locate the person.

8:25 a.m. - Wallet reported stolen from the Coliseum. It reportedly was removed from an unattended purse. Estimated loss is $41.

10:10 a.m. — Two-car accident reported in the Nebraska Union meter lot. No injuries were reported. Estimated damages are $275.

10:44 a.m. — Parking permit reported stolen in Parking Area 21.

11:15 a.m. — Belated theft of a bicycle wheel and tire reported. Estimated loss is $40.

1:32 p.m. — Window reported out of the Whittier Junior High building. Estimated damage is $75.

2:03 p.m. — Cash reported stolen from a room in Pound Hall. An estimated $6 was reported missing. It is unknown whether the door was locked.

2:03 p.m. — Watch and other miscellaneous items reported stolen from a room in Pound Hall. Estimated loss is $81.

3:01 p.m. — Calculator reported lost or stolen in Ferguson Hall.

3:56 p.m. — Golf clubs reported stolen from 1510 Vine St. Estimated loss is $455.

5:57 p.m. — Hit-and-run accident reported in the Dental College parking lot on East Campus. A car struck a parked car. Estimated damages are $50.

8:30 p.m. — Wallet reported stolen. It had been left on a bus and could not be located later. Estimated loss is $34.

9:03 p.m. — Noise disturbance reported in the area of U Street between 14th and 15th streets. A vehicle's horn was reportedly stuck.

9:26 p.m. — Purse reported stolen. It had been left on the steps at Andrews Hall. The purse was later recovered, minus $4 cash.
