Weekend football contests offer fans bowl previews

Now that the World Series is over, sports fans can turn their undivided attention to college football. And there are some very good games this week to hold their attention. But first . . .

Colorado at Nebraska: After a good start, the Buffs seem to have returned to their old form. Bad, in other words.

Colorado has lost three games in a row and worse yet, they really haven't even been close.

Jeff Goodwin

Nebraska, on the other hand, got back on the right track against Mizzou last week.

And there doesn't seem to be much the Buffs can do to stop them, either. All of which makes me think Colorado coach Bill McCartney should have picked another team as his team's "rival." This thought must be giving McCartney nightmares this week: If Missouri scored 59 on us what will Nebraska do? Like the 800 pound gorilla — whatever it wants. Nebraska 56, Colorado 10.

Iowa at Michigan: As usual Bo's Boys in Blue (sounds like boysenberry if you say it really fast) are right in the thick of the fight for the Rose Bowl. This year, the Big Ten teams have an added incentive: The Pac Ten teams are so bad that the Big Ten representative has a reasonable chance of winning.

The Hawkeyes saw their Rose Bowl hopes take a jolt a few weeks ago at the hands of the Fighting Illini, but they aren't out of the race, by any means. The problem they have in this game is playing in Ann Arbor. The Wolverines lose at home about as often as Jesse Helms goes to an Americans for Democratic Action meeting.

With the exception of a loss to Washington, the Wolverines have played well this year. Michigan gives the Hawks the Big Chill: Michigan 28, Iowa 17.

Southern Cal at Notre Dame: How the mighty have fallen. The Trojans, at 2-3-1, don't even have a winning record.

The Irish are favored for a change and they are playing at South Bend but don't put too much faith in that. This is always thought of as a spirited rivalry, and it is, but it is a game that USC almost always wins.

Defense has been a problem for the Trojans this year and they will have to contain Allen Pinknett, Notre Dame's explosive tailback.

The offense hasn't been outstanding either, with the exception of the Washington State game. It's been a long year for USC, but they should be on the verge of putting it together: USC 28, Notre Dame 21.

Rec Scoreboard

VOLLEYBALL
No Names def. Sandoz Six 15-12, 15-12
Schramm Seven def. Sandoz Six 15-12, 12-15, 15-10
Chi Omega def. Alpha Xi Delta 16-14, 18-16
Alpha Xi Delta def. Burr Three East 15-2, 14-16, 15-2
Alpha Delta Pi def. Smith Ten 15-13, 15-12
No Names def. Alpha Delta Pi 15-6, 15-6
Chi Omega def. Sandoz Three 15-4, 15-3
Schramm Seven Def. Pound Two 15-6, 15-4
Smith Ten def. Pound Two 16-14, 15-11
Burr Three East def. Smith Eight 1-15, 15-9, 1715
Smith Eight def. Love Three 15-8, 15-0
Wreck Crew def. VHC, 15-9, 15-9
Dorchester Longhorns def. Ag. Economics 12-9, 15-2
Dorchester Longhorns def. Guache Soc. 15-2, 15-9
Sandoz Two def. Pound Nine 15-10, 15-2
Ruff Tuffies def. Pound Nine 15-4, 15-0
Mollies Maulers def. Bruner Club 15-6, 15-3
Wreck Crew def. Bruner Club 15-1, 15-7
Schramm Three def. Sandoz Two B 15-11, 11-15, 15-3

HORSESHOE SINGLES
Men — Mark Rasmussen, Theta Xi, def. Rick Kutilek, Alpha Tau Omega, 21-7, 21-3.
Women — Karen Schneider, Burr Two East, def. Darla Stasbb, Kappa Alpha Theta, 21-3.
NOTICES — Flag football playoffs (mens) begin Wednesday. Schedules are available after 1 p.m. Tuesday. Volleyball playoffs begin Sunday. Volleyball schedules are available today after 1 p.m. Co-recreational soccer playoffs begin Sunday. Schedules are available today after 1 p.m. All schedules available at Recreation Department Office, 1720 Vine St.