

2'fers
 at Cindy's
That's Right . . .

From 6 to 9 pm every Monday & Thursday evening!!!!
 2 for 1 on any of Cindy's delicious, regular priced
SUNDAES, MALTS, SHAKES OR BANANA SPLITS
 Bring this coupon and a friend to Cindy's for a
2 'fer SPECIAL
Cindy's ice cream shoppe Skywalk level - The Atrium

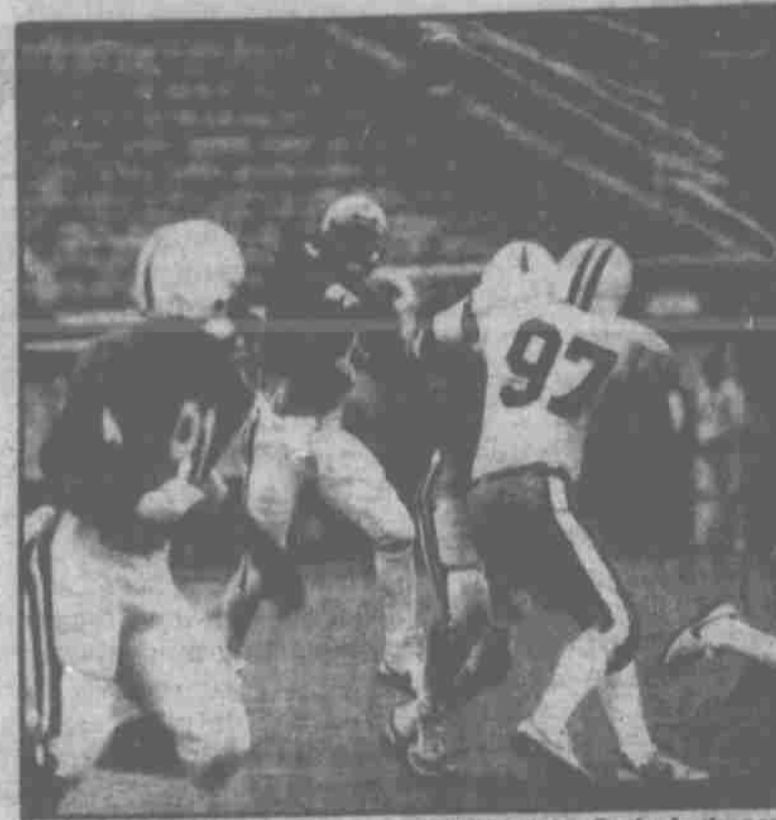

P.S. Cindy don't use no fake ice cream in 'er malts 'n shakes
IT'S THE REAL STUFF!

No Match
 For Problem
 Solving

All Burned
 Out

For Immediate Action Contact
 The Ombudsman Office
 116 Lyman Hall
 472-3633

Staff photo by Craig Andressen

Quarterback McCathorn Clayton finds an open receiver during the Nebraska freshmen's 27-0 victory against Waldorf Friday.

Miller Brewtahas

THIS HERE'S A TRUE STORY.

LAST NIGHT 'ROUND MIDNIGHT... A BUNCH OF ALIENS LANDED RIGHT HERE IN MY OWN BACKYARD.

AND BEFORE I KNEW IT, THEY DONE ROUNDED UP MY WIFE AND KIDS AND SHOVED 'EM INTO THE DARN SPACESHIP.

THEN THEY JUST TOOK OFF RIGHT OUTTA SIGHT...

I COULDN'T BELIEVE IT. MY WIFE... MY KIDS. BUT NOT MY MILLER HIGH LIFE.

GUESS THAT CONFIRMS THERE'S NO INTELLIGENT LIFE OUT THERE.

Turnovers abound as Nebraska freshmen whip Waldorf JC

By Jeff Korbek

Nebraska's freshman defense forced four fumbles and three interceptions and the offense ground 421 yards on the ground as they defeated Waldorf Junior College 27-0 in their final home football game Friday.

Both teams had difficulty hanging on to the ball in the cold, wet weather. Nebraska turned the ball over four times losing three of seven fumbles and one interception.

"With the wet field, we were limited with our offense," freshman coach Dan Young said. "We ran straight at them pretty good."

Nebraska wingback Von Sheppard opened the scoring after he took a Waldorf punt on his own 8-yard line and returned it 94 yards for a touchdown with 9:54 left in the first quarter. On the day, Sheppard returned five punts for 114 yards.

"Sheppard has good broken-field running ability," Young said.

Three of Nebraska's turnovers came in the first quarter. Novell Jackson fumbled after gains of 14 and 12 yards the first two times Nebraska had the ball. Young said Jackson wasn't getting a grip on the ball because his forearms were taped. After taking off the tape, he didn't have any more trouble, and led all rushers with 81 yards on 11 carries.

On the Huskers' third possession, Jeff Taylor threw an interception, but on Nebraska's fourth possession, Taylor and McCathorn Clayton combined to engineer an eight-play, 63-yard scoring drive. Clayton ran 17 yards for Nebraska's second touchdown with 13 minutes left in the second quarter, putting NU ahead 13-0.

The freshman defense twice held Waldorf out of the end zone inside the Husker 10-yard line. Late in the second quarter, Waldorf had a second and goal at the Husker seven when linebacker Kevin Parsons forced a fumble, and defensive end Jeff Jarurog recovered.

Late in the third quarter, Waldorf had a first down at the Husker six when defensive end Brad Tryer recovered a fumble at the 10. Nebraska then drove 90 yards in eight plays, with quarterback Henley Hawkins scoring on a 46-yard run with 13:47 left in the game.

Young said the defense put forth a good effort and that he was encouraged by their progress. The offense still lacks consistency, he said. Nebraska accumulated 434 yards of offense, but only 13 yards came from passing, on two completions in 16 attempts.

Nebraska scored late in the fourth quarter on Clayton's one-yard run with 3:10 remaining. The final touchdown drive covered 53 yards in eight plays.

The Huskers will play their final game next Friday when they travel to Lawrence, Kan. to meet the Kansas junior varsity team.