

Lincoln gets Romantic

National pop recording group The Romantics will appear Nov. 10, at the Royal Grove, 340 W. Cornhusker. The band will appear in Lincoln as part of a national tour. Tickets $7 and are available at Dirt Cheap record stores and both Pickles stores, as well as at the door. Opening for the band will be Nebraska.

Playhouse auditions soon

Auditions for "Terra Nova" and "Looking Glass" will be at 7 p.m. Nov. 13 and 14 at the Lincoln Community Playhouse, 2500 S. 56th St.

Parts are available in "Terra Nova" for six men and one woman, age 20 and older. "Looking Glass" has parts available for eight men and three women, age 18 and older, one 13-year-old male and two 8- to 10 year-old females.

Scripts are available from the Lincoln Community Playhouse. They can be checked out upon payment of a refundable $3 deposit. For more information, call the Playhouse at 489-7529.

Ode to Ernie wings eighth non-contest

A mysterious contestant named I. Zodd is the lucky winner of non-contest number eight. The elusive Zodd composed the following ode, to be sung to the tune of "From the Halls of Montezuma."

*From the halls of the state capitol,
To the pages of the press,*

*Ernie Chambers champions underdogs,
But he doesn't know how to dress.*

*He will fight for causes unpopular,
His opinions he will blurt.*

*I am glad he's a state senator,
But I think I'll buy him a shirt.*

Non-contest number 10 asks for the best durned joke you've ever heard, keeping in mind, of course that this is a family newspaper. Send your puns, puzzles and knock-knocks to Arts and Entertainment Editor, Nebraska Union 34, 1400 R St., Lincoln, Neb. 68588. The deadline for non-contest number 10 is Nov. 11. Winners will be announced Nov. 17.

Also, keep in mind, the deadline for non-contest number nine is Friday. Winners will be announced next week.
