

Captain Cap . . .

"Sounds super! How much do you want for 'em and where can you be reached?"

"We'll pass 'em off for 50 cents or your best offer. Just drop us a line at Miracle Missile Mum Silos, Box 1, Kimball, Nebraska."

"Thanks sir . . . Hello and thank you for calling Cap Call In."

"Hello. Can you hold for a minute while I get the president on the line?"

"Sure ma'am Oh hello Mr. President. How can I help you?"

"Well, I accidentally tuned in to your station late last night and heard this morning's program. Nancy and I were trying to get Radio El Salvador — always want to get in on what's going on around the world."

"How can we help you here in Lincoln, Nebraska, sir? We're on the air."

"Precisely. And a good thing that you are. I need a buyer."

"As you know, we've released our budget lately and haven't been able to get rid of that durned deficit. If someone would like to buy it from me, I'm willing. I'd even sell it to a group. Perhaps a bi-partisan committee. How, I'm not trying to make this a political football . . . that's not why I called Nebraska. I just thought someone out there in the Midwest would like to pick up a fumble for the old Gipper."

"Well, thank you for calling KKYP. We'll see what we can do for you . . . Hey, it looks as if we've run out of time for today. We'll catch more calls tomorrow. Time for a commercial now. But hold on . . . we'll be right back with music to please from station KKYP."
