KEN'S HAS THE HIGHLIGHT OF YOUR HOMEWORK
Choosing what's important in an assignment can be very difficult. Sometimes a person can end up highlighting half the page. Even when that happens Ken's for Pen's has the solution. By having a few different colors you can make things important and very important, etc. And with fluorescent highlighters at prices that are easy on the eyes, you can make things really stand out. And isn't that what highlighting's all about. From your pen pals.
