

Communist threat . . .

 "I helped purify Nicaragua for the international banking house of Brown Bros. in 1909-12. I brought light to the Dominican Republic for American sugar interests in 1916. I helped make Honduras 'right' for American fruit companies in 1923.

In China in 1927 I helped to see to it that Standard Oil went its way unmolested.

"During those years I had, as the boys in the back room would say, a swell racket.

"Looking back on it, I feel I might have given Al

Capone a few hints. The best he could do was to operate his racket in three city districts.

"We marines operated on three continents."

Remember, this was written in 1935, before the Soviet domination of Eastern Europe. Moreover, some of the military adventures that General Butler refers to actually predate the establishment of the Soviet Union.

If we are as honest as General Butler, we would have to admit that the forces he talked about are still at work today. Can we be as patriotic as he and oppose them?

Majority says 'cheers to Bill'

Because Bill Allen's column (Daily Nebraskan, March 12) is bound to provoke many opposing comments from those associated with ASUN, we feel obligated to represent the vast majority of the students at UNL who agree completely with his statements.

If Allen's comments are entirely false, we challenge ASUN to flex its political muscle by getting his columns banned from all future publications.

Three cheers to Bill for telling it like it is.

DN headline affected voting

Although I have no affiliation with the UNITE party, I feel that a very misleading headline (Daily Nebraskan, March 14) unfairly affected the outcome of Wednesday's ASUN elections.

The headline, "Error stops UNITE campaign", implied that the UNITE Party had been removed from the ballot, while in reality, the Electoral Commission had ruled they not be allowed to distribute pamphlets, display campaign posters, etc., on the day of the election. After reading the headline, it is logical to assume many potential UNITE voters cast their vote for other parties.

The extent of the damage will never be known, but it is obvious that the Daily Nebraskan showed poor judgment in running the misleading headline.
