

More ASUN . . .

The senator for the School of Health, Physical Education and Recreation is Mary Ann Morrison of the US Party, 170 votes.

Representatives for the Home Economics Advisory Board for Human Development and the Family are US Party member Lori Pickrel, 22 votes, and Aim candidate Shelley Wolfe, 29.

Advisory board representatives from the textiles, clothing and design department are Aim candidate Shelley Clinch, 29 votes, and Fashion candidate Cindy Cochran, 20 votes.

Home-Ec board members for education and family resources are Aim's Sandra Haschke, 19 votes, and Kay Roloff of US, 21 votes.

Also on the board for food and nutrition is Aim candidate Jill Mountford, 25 votes.

Greek members of the Committee for Fees Allocation are Aim candidates David Cox, 1,124 votes, and Laurie Jo Kuhn, 1,138 votes.

Off-campus committee members include Aim candidate Mike Prescher, 1,072 votes, and Andy Abboud, 992 votes.

Residence hall students elected to the committee are Aim Party members Conor McCarthy, 1,432 votes, and Ron Bond, 1,423 votes.

The professional college senator is Lee Smith, who ran uncontested and got 17 votes with the UNITE Party.

Five Aim candidates were elected as business college senators. They are Chris Scudder, 241 votes; Laura Brix, 225 votes; Don Welch, 215 votes; Tim Clare, 254 votes; and Ken Bukowski, 175 votes.

Arts and Sciences Advisory Board members are social sciences representatives Melissa Wythers, 272 votes, and Cindy Miller, 323 votes. Both ran with the Aim party.

Humanities representatives are Aim candidate Layne Hansen, 387 votes, and US candidate Erin Hahn, 348 votes.

Physical science and mathematics board members are Aim candidates Bao-Loan Nguyen, 221 votes, and Dan Jacobson, 342 votes.

Board members for the chemistry and life sciences department are Aim candidates Vicki Van Roy, 213 votes, and Warren Stiles, 238 votes.

Board members for the communication and fine arts department are Aim candidate Lori Sellinger, 247 votes, and Ann Bliss, 263 votes.

For Agriculture Advisory Board, representatives from ag economics, Brad Fornoff of UNITE and Alan Bauer of Aim tied at 20 votes each. The dean of the agriculture college will decide who wins the seat.

Agricultural Advisory Board members are Aim candidate Bob Standage, 21 votes, for agriculture education, mechanized agriculture, and agriculture journalism. Aim Party member Cindy Jensen won the animal-science board position with 21 votes. Aim member Mae Magelli, 7 votes, will represent general agronomy, soil science, and plant pathology on the board. Aim member D. Jay Wolverton, 10 votes, will represent pre-veterinary science and Aim member Brian Katz, 25 votes, will represent agriculture honors and general agriculture.

US member Joe B. Sullivan, 5 votes, won the forestry, fisheries and wildlife board spot, and US member Kathy Ryland, 9 votes, won the food science and technology, horticulture and entomology spot.

1,503 students voted "yes" to spend $18 of their student fees on supporting the debt service for financing the Nebraska Unions, the University Health Center and the residence halls. 715 voted "no."

1,504 students approved spending $39.42 of their student fees to support the health center. 713 voted "no."

Students voted 1,740 to 465 to approve spending $18.42 of the student fees to support the Nebraska Unions, and voted 1,754 to 456 in approval of spending $7.16 of student fees to support recreational programs and facilities.

The refundable Fund A survey showed that 1,676

students approved allocation of part of their fees to support the Daily Nebraskan. 587 voted against it.

On the question of allocating student fees for student government officer salaries, 911 voted to approve and 1,336 voted against it.

Students approved 1,486 to 757 support of the campus speakers program and voted 1,384 to 839 to approve a 50-cent per semester allocation for continued membership in the Nebraska State Student Association.

Plaza 4
12th and "O" St. 477-1234

FRIDAY & SATURDAY NIGHTS AT 15 AFTER MIDNIGHT SEPARATE ADMISSIONS $3.50 EACH

Pick A Flick from our MIDNIGHT SPECIAL

LD. REQ'D for (R) FILMS - NO PASSES

PLAZA 1	Pink FLOYD THE WALL (R)
PLAZA 2	MONTY PYTHON and the HOLY GRAIL (R)
PLAZA 3	THE BIG CHILL (R)
PLAZA 4	ROCKY HORROR SHOW (R)

Highroads to Adventure Travel Fair

Friday, March 16 3-6 p.m.

*Films, Tips & Information about budget travel in Europe, Africa & the Orient!
*Representative from KLM Royal Dutch Airlines Will be present!
*Free admission!

WHERE: SKYLIGHT BISTRO
WHEN: FRIDAY, MARCH 16 3-6 p.m.

Sponsored by:
American Youth Hostels, Nebraskaland Council
Contact Travel
Overseas Opportunities Center, UNL

SAINT PATRICK'S DAY

'World Famous'
P.O. Pears

IN 432 A.D., SAINT PATRICK LEFT SEVERN VALLEY AND CAME TO THE ISLE OF EIRE. I WAS BUT A WEE LAD THEN.

'World Famous'
P.O. Pears

IN HIS DAY, ST. PATRICK RID THE ISLE OF SERPENTS.

A BISHOP THOUGH HE WERE, HE WOULD OFTEN NIP OFF TO HIS FAVORITE PUB...

THE FINEST GREEN BEER 59¢

MICKEY'S WIDE MOUTH 89¢

1520 YEARS AGO ON MARCH 17th ST. PATRICK DIED.

AND FOR NO BETTER EXCUSE THAN "HE WANTED IT THAT WAY," ALL GOOD FRIENDS OF THE IRISH COME TO PARTY "SATURDAY" MARCH 17th, ALL DAY LONG! at P.O. PEARS

'World Famous'
P.O. Pears

'World Famous'
P.O. Pears

PARTY

322 SOUTH 9th STREET LINCOLN, NE 68508 476-8551