Bluejays rally to earn double-header split  By Stu Pospisil  Sanders said. "But it didn't, and that's

Nebraska' inablity to forget its firstgame rout of Creighton proved costly as the Bluejays salvaged a split of the Wednesday double-header with a 4-2 Wednes victory.
victory.
In the first game, the $25-8$ Huskers feasted on
"We went out and didn't tum the page in the 20 -minute break between games, ${ }^{\text {n }}$ said Nebraska Coach Sanders. "Even if we won, we still didn" execute in some key situations.
The Huskers were held hitless in the second game until the sixth inning, rraling 3-1. Nebraska's Scott Hooper left-centerfield to lead off the inning and then scored on Paul Meyers'singie.
Creighton pitcher Dave Hartnett who had relleved starter Paul Davis in the fourth inning, then struck out Husker cleanup hitter Mike Duncan before retiring Rich King and David Turney.

Creighton added an insurance run in the seventh inning, Ernie Ojea scorby Husker second Eubanks.
Still, Nebraska had an opportunity to rally in its half of the seventh. Afte two outs, Eubanks hit a grounder down the thirdbase line that was good for a Stanek ruled it hit in fair territory
Shortstop Jeff Carter walked, then Hooper belted a drive to left field that was held up in the air by a strong wind and then caught by Brad zach.
"If the ball gets up, its out of here,"
the game."
Creighton Coach Dave Underwood whose Bluejays are now $10-8$, said he wondered if his team would rebound ater the opening loss.
"I was at a loss as to the way we were playing," Underwood'sald. "We weren't playing with much enthusiasm, and where the Bluefays won one of four games)." Bluejays won one of four Even though Davis was working on a no-hit game, Underwood said he replac eci the righthander with Hartnett be the plate. They could run on himing Creighton built its early lead with two-run first inning, then added another run in the third. Jeff Carter scored Nebraska's initial run on Hooper's ground-out after a walk and two stolen bases.
Nebraska had few problems scoring runs in the opening game of the twinthe Huskers banged out 13 hits includ ing a triple and three doubles.
Catcher Bill McGuire displayed his versatility, driving in four runs - three on a sixth-inning triple - and then moving to the pitchers' mound, where the former Omaha Creighton Prep player struck out the six batters he faced in the final two innings.
Four Husker pitchers truck out 13 batters, Jeff Anderson picking up his fifth win on his 22nd birthday with three innings of work. Starter Phil Harrison picked off two more baserunners in his two innings, bringing his total to eight in his last three games.

Creighton's Eric Campbell slides Into second baseman Kurt Eubanks in an attempt to break up a double play in the first game of Wednesday's double-header with the Bluejeys. Eubanks' throw to firgt was not in time for the ont.
