

Deficit threatens pizza, primaries

Announcer: And now Glom Cable Network's Glomwatch '84, with news and commentary by Glenn Stuva and Tom Mockler.

Glenn: Good evening. This is Glomwatch. You're in tune with the universe.

Tom: Yes.

Glenn: Tonight we're going to discuss "The Federal Deficit and You." What do you think of it, Tom?

Tom: Oh, I think it's bad. Very, very bad.

Glenn: So do I. Why, if the federal government continues on like it is, there won't be any more baseball games to watch.

Tom: What?

Glenn: Aliens from another planet will confiscate all our baseball equipment.

Tom: And what about Italian food? I really love Italian food.

Glenn: It's true. It's really true.

Tom Mockler and Glenn Stuva

Tom: And what about the Democratic primaries?

Glenn: No doubt about it. It's either them or us.

Tom: Have you seen Moscow On The Hudson?

Glenn: No, I haven't.

Tom: Neither have I.

Glenn: So, what kind of impact do you feel Feuerbach made on contemporary art?

Tom: Minimal at best.

Glenn: I think it lends new credence to the phrase "A penny saved is a penny earned."

Tom: Ha Ha Ha.

Glenn: Ha Ha Ha Ha.

Tom: Let's talk about the domestic auto industry. I hear Chrysler is making record profits. Is that good or bad?

Glenn: It's very good.

Tom: Why, Glenn?

Glenn: Because that means that stockholders are going to be rolling in the dough, and that's good for all of us.

Tom: I know — I want a new TV.

Glenn: I want a cat.

Tom: I drove down the street the other day and saw many new cars.

Glenn: Now comes the part of the program I like best — where we become real people and talk about ourselves. For example, "What did you do over spring break, Tom?"

Tom: You don't want to know.

Glenn: Yes I do. I really really do. Really.

Tom: I'll tell you what I did. While some of these folks were soaking up the sun at Padre Island, I was sitting at home in Omaha, Nebraska. With a strep infection and a temperature of 105°. For the last three years, I've spent my spring break in Omaha, Nebraska. I'm not bitter, though.

Glenn: You want to know what I did?

Tom: No.

Glenn: I too was in Omaha but fortunately I was healthy and able to take advantage of the many attractions Omaha has to offer. I went to Club 89 one night and saw a neat band called Dave Major and the Minors. They were real good. Another night I saw the movie Police Academy. It was real funny.

Tom: I'm going to go gargle salt water now. (Pulls out a glass of salt water and begins gargling).

Glenn: Well, this certainly puts a damper on things. I guess it's time to cook the goose, as the expression goes.

(A collection of hand puppets appears).

Head puppet: We're sorry, but it's time to go. We hope you have enjoyed our show. Come again another day, when we can play and play and play. Bye!

MCA Records

Michael Jackson and E. T.

"LIVE" BO'S "LIVE"

Tonite Thru Saturday

In Judge's

THE RUMBLES

In Center

PUPPET

27th & Cornhusker

STOOGES WEEKLY SPECIALS

TONIGHT
2-FERS
7-11 PM

WEDNESDAY
MEN'S NIGHT

Free Drinks For Men

THURSDAY

Tight Fitting Jeans Contest.

$50 1st prize
for Men's & Women's Classes.

Plus 3-FERS
7-10 P.M.

FRIDAY
LADIES NITE

FREE DRINKS FOR THE LADIES
7-9 P.M.

MONDAY 8 P.M.
BOYLESQUE MALE REVUE

DANCE TO STOOGES' NEW VIDEO SYSTEM

STOOGES
9th & P St.

WE ROCK LINCOLN

Spring Sale
Pottery

Wednesday, April 25
7:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m.
UNL Student Union-Main Lounge
City Campus

Sponsored by LPC Arts Committee