

HOTSPOTS

Radio

• Robert Page will conduct this week's edition of the Cleveland Orchestra (8 p.m., KUCV, 90.9 FM). Cellist Michael Weiss is the featured soloist. Selections include Mozart's "Symphony No. 4 in g," Tchaikovsky's "Variations on a Rocooco Theme" and Prokofiev's "Scythian Suite."

At the Kimball

• Faculty and student artists from the School of Music will perform during an Evening of Music, which begins at 8 p.m. in the Recital Hall. The program will embrace selections from works of eminent composers in a concert reminiscent of a turn-of-the-century gala event. The hall will be decorated with flowering plants and shrubbery to lend beauty to the occasion. There is no admission charge.

At the Sheldon

• Seeing Reds, directed by Julius Reichert and James Klein, will be screened today in the Film Theatre at 1 and 7:30 p.m. The film is a documentary about the men and women who joined the Communist Party during the Depression. Reichert will attend the evening screening, and will discuss her work with the audience afterward. Admission is $3.

On Stage

• Tennessee Williams' Summer and Smoke will be presented on the stage of the Howell Theatre tonight through Saturday, and May 1 through 5, Williams' drama is being directed by Constance Hill, an MFA candidate. The cast includes Carolyn Hood, Jim Jorgensen, Lillah Grund, Kellie Powell, Randy Dekoltz, Mari Weiss, Kim Gates, Charlie Bachmann, Michael Hofacre, Amy Thone, Scott Dientsbier, Benjamin Miller and Kenneth Page. Tickets are available at the theater box office in the Temple Building, 12th and R streets, between noon and 5 p.m. Tickets also may be obtained by calling 472-2073.

On Campus

• Two Eddie Murphy films, 48 HRS. and Trading Places, will show in the Nebraska East Union's North 40 Lounge today beginning at 10 a.m. There is no admission charge. The event is sponsored by UPC.

Zoo Bar

The Robert Cray Band will be appearing in Lincoln as part of Blues Week at the Zoo Bar, 136 N. 14th St. The cover charge is $3.
