Repertory Theatre sets summer playbill

A Pulitzer-Prize-winning drama, a big, bold and brassy musical, and a British comedy form the 1984 Nebraska Repertory Theatre's 1984 summer playbill.

"Crimes of the Heart," by Beth Henley, is a high-spirited comedy that won the Pulitzer Prize for Drama in 1981. It is about a reunion of three sisters — a spinster, a sexpot and a screwball — and the trio's attempts to elude their scarred childhoods and grab a new chance at life. "Crimes of the Heart" will play the Studio Theatre June 28 to 30 and July 3 to 7 and 10 to 14, all at 8 p.m.

"George M!" is the story of the Broadway talent of the first quarter of this century, George M. Cohan. All the songs in the musical are Cohan's. "George M!" will play the University Theatre Omaha July 6 to 8 and 13 to 15, and the Howell Theatre July 24 to 28, all at 8 p.m.

Three couples — each representing a level of the middle class — dine together in Alan Ayckbourn's "How the Other Half Loves." The British farce comedy pokes fun at all three classes while demonstrating that they, like East and West, cannot really meet. It is scheduled for an eight-night run at the Howell Theatre, August 2 to 4 and 7 to 11 at 8 p.m.

Individual performance and season tickets now are on sale at the Nebraska Repertory Theatre Box Office, west entrance, Temple Building, 12th and R Streets.

However, she will not leave America defenseless. She will stock the nation's arsenals with inexpensive plastic dishes, which can be hurled at the enemy with almost no resulting losses of life or limb.

"Now that's a lot better!" Celeste exclaimed.

"We have not been able to determine the candidate's position on the ERA. Judging from her sex, we guess that she supports it."

"Wrong," said Celeste. "Women need more rights than men."

"Miss Underwood plans a full-scale revamping of both the White House and the executive branch," the article continued.

"It is rumored that the presidential palace will receive a new coat of paint, possibly in peacock blue. Within the Cabinet, the wearing of navy blue coats will be strictly for-bidden." Celeste laid down the magazine and sipped her sangria. "Ah, the sweet taste of semi-success," she said, and passed out.

Next week: The Moral Majority reveals its opinion of the candidate, and Otis gets a job.
