Your Birthday today: You are one year older than you used to be. This may be good or bad, depending on how old you used to be, or are, or might be, but you're only as old as you feel, but now you feel older than you used to be. . . . Anyway, it's all relative. Time, that is. And gravity too, for that matter.

Vertigo, August 22-September 22: Your life reaches dizzying new heights, but you feel sick about it. Your love life peaks, but don't open your eyes — you may get nauseous.

Liver, September 23-October 22: You're too much of a party animal. Firewater has entered the house of Depression — beware of the Porcelain God. Cancerous could figure prominently.

Scorpion, October 23-November 22: Your social life is a desert. Things look very bleak, and could get worse. Lay low during the day, make your move at night. Keep alert, you can't afford to let one opportunity for a sting escape.

Sad-and-Delirious, November 23-December 21: Your mate will leave you, your pet will die, you lose all your underwear, you flunk all your classes, you stub your toe, you're slimed by a ghost, and your parents move and leave no forwarding address. But there's hope.

Candy Corn, December 22-January 19: Things look sweet for you. Don't force yourself on others, though — too much of you is more than anyone can handle. People say you're a sap, and your buds are jealous of your sweet tooth, but you know better. You're colorful and tasteful. For you success comes easy — like taking candy from a baby.

Aquarium, January 20-February 18: Something fishy's going on in your life. You appear to have lots of options, but be very careful which ones you bite on — a mistake could be fatal. A member of the opposite sex could get their hooks in you. But be choosy, there's plenty of fish in the sea.

Micies, February 19-March 20: Someone has set a trap for you, so don't walk into things blindly. Fight shy of farmers' wives; they're dangerous. When trouble comes, you may do best to crawl in a hole.

Airhead, March 21-April 20: Don't bother to listen in class. You need a clue, but will never find one. To find your stars, look inward — all of space is in your head. Intelligence knocks at the door, but nobody's home.

Bore-us, April 21-May 20: Yawn . . . You may make a mint as a personal insomnia consultant, if your patients ever wake up to pay you. At parties your best line is no line, keep your mouth shut.

Gem-in-eye, May 21-June 20: You may finally get that rock you've been looking for. Diamonds are your best and only friend — don't compromise. When he or she proposes, ask to see some carats first.

Cancerous, June 21-July 20: Your personality is infectious, you become attached to Liver. You'll confront life and death decisions. Reject the advances of scientists, they're out to get you.

Eio, July 21-August 21: Forget school. Travel is your future — pack your bags and take a long tropical vacation. Give yourself and your friends a break, get out of town and take Bore-us with you. You're headed for a jungle, but don't be afraid. You belong there.

Back to school ballads bring tears

By Chris Burbach

For everything, there is a season. For every season, there is a song. Here are a couple for fall. Sung to the tune of "Try to Remember."

Humor

Remember.
"Do you remember this time last September,
When textbooks were calling,
Your grades quickly falling?
Try to remember,
That hellish September,
And swallow.
Why'd you come back here,
To anxiety and fear,
To sweat and frustration,
Mental molestation?
Try to remember,
Your grey matter aching,
Your writing hand breaking,
And escape."
Sung to the tune of "I can't Help Falling in Love With You."
"Wise men say
Only fools go to school,
But I can't help it,
I've got nothing else to do.
Like a three-toed sloth,
Hanging in a tree,
Watching life go by,
That's the way I was meant to be.

So take my dough,
Take my time, my love, my youth,
For I can't stop
Until I find the truth."

It all adds up!

1 costs money.
