

Rock 'n' roll . . .

Judges
2630 Cornhusker Highway

Judges is located in the Bo's Complex, which is currently being remodeled. When the complex is finished, the place will be one large bar. Even without the additional space, Judges has a large dance floor and a lot of individual serving bars. They feature top 40 rock 'n' roll and the bands are mainly from the midwest area. There is music at Judges all week with a $1 cover weekdays and $2 cover on weekends.

McGuffey's 1042 P St.

The Lincoln Jazz Society plays every Thursday night at McGuffey's. There is no cover charge. McGuffey's has both food and drink and attracts a middle age and college crowd.

The Mountains
311 South 11th St.

The Mountains offers live rock 'n' roll music on Friday and Saturday nights. The dance floor is small and the atmosphere is unpretentious.

Pla-mor Ballroom
1920 West O St.

The big band sound can be found at Pla-mor, which features ballroom music Wednesday and Saturday nights. Wednesday is a singles dance from 8:30 p.m. to midnight and Saturday is a couples dance from 8:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m. Cover is $2.50. Sunday, the Pla-mor has polka music from 6 p.m. to 10 p.m. with a $2 cover charge.

Riveras, 1920 West O St.

Country and country rock music can be found at the Riveras, which has local acts playing Friday and Saturday nights. The music attracts a diverse crowd, anywhere from 20 to 90 year olds. There is no cover.

Royal Grove
340 West Cornhusker Highway

Music can be found all week at the Grove for only $1 cover charge, unless there is a special show. Mostly the music is rock and roll, but the Grove has featured national acts like the Fabulous Thunderbirds, the Suburbs, and The Romantics. The Grove has lots of room and a large dance floor. The clientele is mainly a middle age working class.

Sidetrack, 700 P St.

The Sidetrack is an easy-going bar with a college and young professional crowd. Thursday night, the Sweet Potatoes band plays and Friday and Saturday Joyce Durand (piano) and John Bryan (bass) play ditties and jingles which the whole crowd sings along with. Another feature at the Sidetrack is a trivia contest on Tuesday night.

Skylight Bistro
235 N. 11th St.

The Bistro is a restaurant during the week, but features local musicians on the weekends. The music is mainly folk and contemporary. There is a cafe-bar (bistro) atmosphere which is oriented toward a professional and faculty crowd. Eventually, the Bistro hopes to have music on Monday nights, for which there would be a cover. Currently, there is no cover at the Bistro.

Sweep Left, 815 O St.

Sweep Left supports a large college crowd and has music toward the end of the week. The music is rock 'n' roll and there is a $1 cover charge on Friday and Saturday.

Tucker Inn
3235 S. 13th St.

As Lincoln's largest country western club, Tucker Inn, of course, features country music Monday thru Saturday. There is a $2 cover and your first drink is free. Freeride is the house band. They play most nights, but periodically, the club will feature a Nashville act.

Zoo Bar, 136 N. 14th St.

The Zoo is Lincoln's home for blues music, featuring big name blues musicians, local blues talent, as well as other types of music. The bar and dance floor are small, but friendly and packs in more fun per square inch than most places. The Zoo has featured such notes blues acts as Luther Allison, Robert Cray, Johnny Reno and the Sax Maniacs and Magic Slim and the Teardrops. Cover charge ranges anywhere from $2 or more, depending on the band. Another feature at the Zoo is their Friday afternoon club, with local blues music from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. for only $1 cover charge.

eye. "I'm pregnant and my boyfriend left the show. I haven't anyone to help me. Please Mr. McGruder. You'll be paid in full." A black stream of mascara dripped down her cheek.

McDugan took her in his arms and parted her lips with his tongue. "I'll take a downpayment now."

Mona stepped back and slapped McDugan's face so hard that spit flew out of his mouth. "Never mind, I thought you had the class to allow a woman the freedom to weep and not touch her person."

McDugan wiped the spit off his chin, and reconsidered. "Okay, I'll help."

They smiled at each other, and McDugan almost decided to try and kiss her again. There was always next week.
