

Administrators give needed leadership

Compiled by Gene Genrup
Daily Nebraskan Senior Reporter

Ronald Roskens has been president of NU since 1977. Before coming to NU, Roskens was chancellor and professor of educational administration at UNO. Roskens also has served as an administrator at Kent State University in Ohio. He is a member of the board of directors of the Foundation for the Study of Presidential and Congressional Terms. He is a trustee of the Harry S Truman Institute and chairman of the Commission on Institutions of Higher Education, North Central Association. Roskens is married and has four children.

Martin Massengale became the 16th chancellor of UNL in 1981. Massengale was a professor at the University of Arizona, and later served as Arizona's Associate Dean of the College of Agriculture. He has served as an agricultural consultant in many foreign countries and is a past president of the Crop Science Society of America. He has served as chairman of the American Registry of Certified Professionals in Agronomy, Crop and Soils and past president of the board of directors of the Mid-America International Agricultural Consortium. Massengale was named Midlands Man of the Year in 1982 and has been honored as an Outstanding Educator of America. He is a member of many other organizations and honoraries. Massengale is married and has two children.

John Goebel was named vice chancellor for business and finance at UNL in June 1982. Goebel joined the UNL faculty in 1959. He was a counselor in the summer orientation program, coordinator of the residency doctorate program and acting chairman of the department of management in the College of Business Administration. He was named director of the executive MBA program in 1974. He served as acting chairman and chairman of the department of accounting from 1976 to 1981, when he was named interim vice chancellor. Goebel is a member of several organizations including the Nebraska, Iowa and American Bar associations, National Accounting Association, American Business Law Association. He serves on the board of trustees of the Nebraska Council on Economic Education. Goebel is married and has five children.

Continued on Page 18

Who's News

John Valdrighi, a senior math and chemistry major from Omaha, has been selected as one of 33 winners of the 1984 Alpha Tau Omega Foundation scholarship. The $2,500 scholarships are awarded annually to ATO fraternity members who show outstanding academic achievement and campus leadership.

The Alpha Tau Omega Foundation is a Champaign, Ill.-based non-profit corporation organized to promote the purposes of the ATO fraternity.

***

Bradley Kuhn, a senior journalism major from Omaha, has been selected as one of 10 winners in the first Roy W. Howard National Writing Competition in Public Affairs Reporting. Winners receive a $1,000 scholarship and an all-expenses-paid trip to a seminar on reporting at the University of Indiana.

The scholarship is sponsored by the Indiana University School of Journalism and the Scripps-Howard Foundation, a non-profit unit of the communications and publishing concern.

***

Dermot Coyne, UNL professor of horticulture, has been named president of the American Society of Horticulture for 1984-85. Coyne's field of study at UNL is vegetable breeding and genetics, with emphasis on the genetics of disease reactions, physiological genetics of flowering and varietal development in dry beans, green beans and winter squash.

***

The Nebraska chapter of the Acacia Fraternity has been named as the top Acacia chapter in the country by the fraternity's national officers.

The chapter received the Malcolm award, based among other things, on its academic achievement, campus participation and community involvement. The chapter also was recognized for its efforts in philanthropy and alumni relations.

Mark Davis/Daily Nebraskan

Anything to get a class

Long shadows and an even longer line form in the early morning sun as students wait Wednesday for appointment cards for general registration.

IN Class FOR LESS

In Class For Less means back-to-school looks in the newest and most popular styles... for less money! And not only will you be In Class For Less, you'll be an exciting lesson in fashion.

29.99
Cord Blazers

Reg. $45. 100% cotton, 2 button blazer in winter white, grey, wine, camel, tobacco or navy. 5-13.

13.99-18.99
Sweaters

Reg. $22-$29. Crew neck solids and novelties. S,M,L.

9.99
Shirts

Reg. $14-$18. Cotton plaids and oxfords. 5-13.

19.99
Slacks

Reg. $27-$34. Corduroy or French canvas in a variety of fall colors. 5-13. Junior Sportswear

12.99-15.99
Sweaters

Reg. $17-$20. Gary Reed acrylic heather crew necks or v-neck vests in taupe, silver, eggplant, teal, charcoal, black or red. S-XL.

12.99
Shirts

Reg. $18 & $19. Updated poly/cotton plaids or stripes; striped or solid button down oxfords. S-XL.

16.99
Lee Cords

Reg. $23. Wrinkle resistant poly/cotton Ultra Cord™ gives a better fit with no shrinking or bagging. Charcoal, grey, taupe or navy, 28-38 waist.

Twill Slacks .... 19.99

Reg. $26. Belted pleat-front slacks by Union Bay. Choose charcoal, dark mauve, toast, black or grey, 28-38 waist. Young Mens

Miller & Paine

Nebraska's Quality Department Stores

Sunday 12-5 and Weekdays 10-9—All Stores. Saturday 10-5:30—Lincoln Center, 10-6—Gateway & Conestoga Mall.