

Buying parking permits easier, but now to find a space .

The savage hunt for parking spaces around campus is off as usual . . . too many cars and not enough spaces.

Finding a place to park is only half the game. You must park in the area corresponding to your permit. Parking enforcement officially begins today from 7 a.m. until 11 p.m. for all lots at the university, Lt. John Burke of the UNL Police Department said.

Any vehicle owner without a proper permit for parking at the university still can buy a permit at the UNL Police Department during regular business hours, Burke said.

Parking permits were sold at the Bob Devaney Sports Center last week and Monday from 9:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m., Burke said. Students and faculty found the extended evening hours more convenient compared to last year's closing time of 4:30 p.m., he said.

Ross Scott, a student commuting from Omaha to East Campus, said he got his permit in 5 minutes with no problem.

Like Scott, most students and staff members passed through the check points and received a permit and a copy of the rules and regulations for UNL parking in fewer than 15 minutes. People waited no more than 30 minutes if they stood in line, Burke said.

A UNL Police Department spokesman said special care should be given to reading all of the rules and regulations. Burke said there is a fine for using expired permits. The $5 violation will be waived if the expired identifier is removed and replaced with a current permit within 10 business days of the issuance of the ticket, he said. Metered spaces will be under enforcement Saturdays, 7 a.m. until noon, he said.

Staff commuters who are displaced by the construction on the University Health Center may park in lots numbered 23 north of Mable Lee Hall or north of the power plant on 14th Street, Burke said.

Student parking for residence hall students will be expanded to the lot behind Harper Hall this fall, Burke said.

WHAT EVERY STUDENT SHOULD KNOW ABOUT THE DIFFERENCES BETWEEN LEASING A TELEPHONE AND LEASING A CHICKEN.

Yes, there are differences. And we think you should know what they are. Ask yourself these questions.

WHEN YOU LEASE A CHICKEN, DO YOU GET THREE MONTHS FREE DURING THE SUMMER?

Probably not. But when you lease your telephone from AT&T this fall, you won't pay any lease charges next summer. You can use your phone at home, and bring it back to school in the fall.

DO LEASED CHICKENS COME IN A SELECTION OF COLORS AND STYLES?

No. Chickens don't come in many colors. But the AT&T telephone you lease this fall comes in a variety of colors and three popular styles.

ARE LEASED CHICKENS REPAIRED FREE?

Don't kid yourself. Repairing a chicken is a delicate process that requires the work of expensive professionals. However, in the off chance your

AT&T leased telephone needs repairs, we'll fix it absolutely free when you visit any of our AT&T Phone Centers.

ARE LEASED CHICKENS SHIPPED DIRECTLY TO YOU?

Ship a chicken? Don't be silly. However, your AT&T leased telephone will be shipped directly to you after one call to 1-800-555-8111, or you can pick up your phone at any of our AT&T Phone Centers.

ONE FINAL QUESTION: DOES IT COST THE SAME TO LEASE A CHICKEN AS TO LEASE A TELEPHONE THIS FALL?

Hardly. While we have no hard data on the exact cost of leasing a chicken, we can tell you with some certainty that the cost of leasing a telephone this fall is far less than you might think.

The decision to lease a chicken or a telephone, of course, rests with you. But should you opt for the telephone, remember: you get three months free next summer, and you can take the phone home with you. There's a choice of colors and styles, free repair, and we'll ship you the phone or you can pick it up at any of our AT&T Phone Centers.

It doesn't cost much either. And that's something to crow about.
