The University Health Center soon will start a weight control group. Call Margaret Eager, 472-5125, for more information.

On Aug. 30, at 3:30 p.m., the Main Events Committee will meet at the East Campus Union to begin planning Eastfest.

Interns are needed by some current political campaign organizations including those of Sen. J. James Exon, Nancy Hoch, state Sen. Tom Vickers and Monica Bauer, as well as by the Republican and Democratic parties. Contact Millie Katz, Experiential Education Office, Oldfather 1218, 472-1452 immediately.

An Ice Cream Social will be Thursday from 4 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. The social, sponsored by the Agricultural Advisory Board and the Faculty Advisory Council, will take place south of the Agricultural Economics Building on East Campus.

The Student Watch organization on the UNL campus currently is recruiting new members. This group is composed of student volunteers who patrol and provide escort service on campus to reduce crime and the incidence of sexual assault. An orientation meeting for new and returning members will be Sept. 9 at 7 p.m. in the Nebraska Union.

Two evening information meetings are planned to help Lincoln citizens deal with the new flood plain maps developed by the Corps of Engineers. All property owners within the new flood plain boundaries are invited to attend. There will be a meeting at 7 tonight in the fourth floor auditorium of Bennett Martin Public Library. The meeting also will be televised live over Cable Channel 10. At-home participants can phone in their questions to city staff members.
