

Murder in F Flat . . .

"It was a shrill, terrible sound.

Like a bell ringing and ringing. Like being in the tub and thinking the phone rings extra long when you're trying to ignore the bell. It sounded like this. Yeet! Yeet! Yeet!"

"I got an ear for that. I hate the sound already."

"It was F Flat. My ear told me that. F Flat beeps. I'm certain of that. I'm not certain where my father is. I just know something terrible has taken him. I know."

"F Flat. Got it. What about your boyfriend?" McDugan was starting to get the corners of this jigsaw puzzle.

"He left the show and he left me. He's a law student at NYU. I told him I was pregnant and he got real mad and left. Right after, my father called with the beeps."

Mona put down the rest of her drink and seemed spent.

"I'll check out old Mr. Boyfriend. He got a name?"

"Walt. He has a little scar on his chin, and a birthmark on his hip. Don't tell him I sent you." Mona reached out and laid her hand on top of McDugan's.

"I'll check Walt out. I'll take care of you."

"You already said that." Mona's eye began to shine.

"Yeah. I'll be more careful." McDugan felt a ball of sweat roll off his nose. Mona took his hand, raised it and kissed the back of his hand gently. McDugan excused himself and ordered four more hot dogs.

AND HEALTH AND BEAUTY AIDS.

When you compare price, also be sure to check for quality and variety. You'll find Food 4 Less® is first in quality, variety, and savings, because Food 4 Less® has done away with the unnecessary handling of groceries, so you can carry home the savings to your family.

Food 4 Less® has automatic scanners at its checkout counters which eliminate the necessity of marking each item separately . . . and that means you save money. Your register receipt lists each item you buy as well as the price, so you can compare Food 4 Less® prices, item by item, with any other store in town.

It takes time to individually price items and arrange them in neat little rows on supermarket shelves. At Food 4 Less® we just stack the cartons they're shipped in and put one price tag on the shelf. It may not be pretty, but it sure cuts out handling costs that show up on your grocery bill.

Food 4 Less® . . . our name says it . . . our prices prove it.

handling charges so you pay less for
