Decorating opportunities abound to spice up residence hall rooms

By Chris Dooley
Daily Nebraskan Staff Writer

Decorating a residence hall room or an apartment does'nt have to be a difficult or expensive task. With a bit of imagination and a little cash, students can either build, rent or buy the decorative and functional items it takes to give their living spaces new warmth and vitality.

Students, who live in 16 feet by 14 feet rooms, need decorative space savers. Residence hall students often use bunk or loft beds to yield more open floor space.

Carpet, a large throw rug or carpet squares can add a new comfort to the tiled residence hall floors. And careful shopping can yield new carpet at reasonable prices. Lincolnland Carpet Co., 211 S. 84th St., offers a discount on remnants and red tag specials for students. Prices range from $25 to $150, manager Kathy Kushner said.

Carpet may keep the floor warm, but to cool your soda, a rented refrigerator might be the answer. Students can rent or buy a small refrigerator, 2 cubic feet, 3½ cubic feet or 5 cubic feet, from the University Housing Department, through the Campus Equipment Company. The refrigerators are rented out for one or two semesters. Prices range from $22.50 for a small refrigerator for one semester to $79 for the large refrigerator for the school year, said Jill Graham, secretary at Campus Equipment Company.
