

I can't get no...

Continued from Page 4

"Donna! Quick come over to my house!" I exclaim.

"Lou, what is it?" quizzed Donna.

"Well, it's a yellow house, second in from the corner, but that doesn't matter... are you coming?"

Donna dashes over and up the stairs to find me in a tail spin rumaging through handbags, shoes, hats and jewelry.

"What am I gonna wear with it?" I ask, nervously pacing in the turquoise blue dress.

Donna holds up this and that knowing we'd have to exhaust all possibilities before my final decision.

"I just don't know! I guess I'll go with the turquoise ballet shoes, not sporty as sneakers, but still "bike ride-able"; the ball dangle earrings with gold accents the small pillbox hat decorated with faceted studs and netting; along with my favorite clutch handbag also with gold accents, and a tri-strand of blue multi-faceted glass beaded necklace.

"How does it look?"

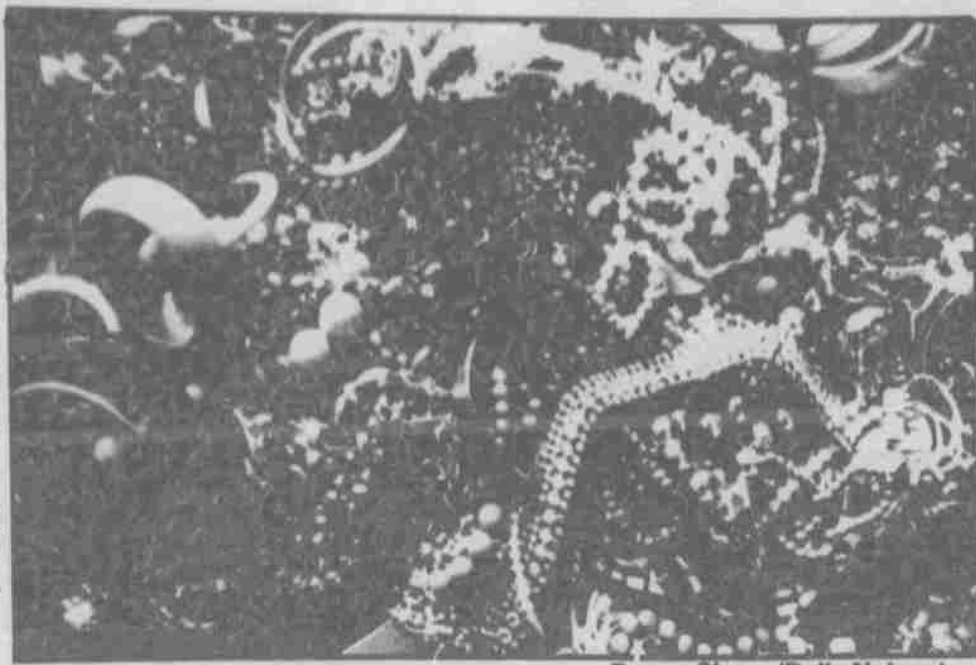

"Looks great, but..."

"No buts, honey, we're LATE!! Let's hit the road."

"But you..."

"Now c'mon. I feel great about the clothes... thanks for your help."

"Lou, you wore that yesterday."

Donna Sisson/Daily Nebraskan

Seemingly motionless, this mound of jewelry plots an overthrow of the fashion queen Lou Anne.

Donna Sisson/Daily Nebraskan

Stacks of shoes wait to pounce on poor, unsuspecting Lou Anne. This morning, however, things will be different.
