

Softball playoff assignments

Softball teams remaining in the playoffs are asked to check with the recreation office by 10 a.m. today for playoff assignments. Intramural director Kenda Scheele said even teams that were not rained out should contact the recreation office.

Rec Scoreboard

The Phi Psi Express, a runner-up in last year's co-recreational flag football tournament, turned back the Harvey Smithers 25-13 to win the division A title.

Earlier in the day, the Express beat America's Team 13-12 on a

UNL rowers win in Iowa

UNL rowers reaped ribbons, T-shirts and medals, winning three of six events at the first annual Head of the Des Moines Regatta in Des Moines, Iowa.

Husker novice crewers rowed for gold in the men's and women's eight races against thin competition and the varsity lightweight women's four beat the University of Chicago and Washburn. The varsity men, racing in both the light and heavyweight eight competition, took second to Notre Dame and Northeastern, respectively.

Purdom said he was pleased with the Husker rowers' performance, noting a marked improvement over their efforts in Iowa two weeks ago.

"It was a good experience for the novices," Purdom said. "They're really beginning to blossom."

The team has a dual next week with Creighton University in Omaha before its homecoming regatta Oct. 28 in Lincoln.
