Local bars offer fiendly holiday fun

Hoodlums, ghosts and goblins will take to the streets Oct. 31 to celebrate All Hallow's Eve, or Halloween.

Children will ring strangers' doorbells, hold out pillow cases or plastic pumpkins, say "trick or treat," and take a piece of candy and run away.

Many adults still want to cash in on the benefits of Halloween, but have found that it doesn't work to go door-to-door with the excuse that you're babysitting you 10-year-old brother who's afraid of the dark.

Ghost story telling, apple bobbing and jack-o-lantern carving contests will all be part of the Halloween hullabaloo in the witches brew at Grandmother's Skillet, 201 Sun Valley Blvd.

There will also be a costume contest, a monster break dancing contest, a popcorn put, (where contestants try to throw a piece of popcorn farthest), and a contest to see who can make the ugliest face.

Guests will be treated with free hors d'oeuvres and specialty drinks like monster-mash punch and hot apple pie. Registration for the games is at the front door from 6 to 7 p.m. More than $200 worth of gift certificates will be given away as prizes.

The following are some suggested haunting grounds which also have special plans brewing for grown-up ghosts and goblins:

Barrymores, 124 N. 13th St. Costumed employees will serve a mysterious special drink for the occasion.

Brittany's, 227 N. 9th St. Frankenbeef-Muenster sandwiches will haunt the lunch menu, and they will have two-fers on drinks from 9 p.m. until midnight.

Chesterfield Bottomsley and Potts, basement, 245 N. 13th St. Why Not? will play and there will be a costume party and drink specials.

Drumstick, 547 N. 48th St. A costume party, with prizes, will be held. Boys with Toys will provide music for the crowd. Cover charge is $3.

H.B. Brand's, 808 P. St. It's scary comedy night at H.B. Brand's. There will be a costume contest, a Rollin' Ray look-alike contest, and everybody wearing a costume will receive a free drink. Festivities start at 9:30 p.m. and there is a $2 cover charge.

Judges, 2630 Cornhusker Hwy. An audience-judged costume party with big prizes will be the highlight here. Prizes are $100 for first place, $50 for second and $35 for third. Extasy is playing and there will be a $2 cover charge.

McGuffey's, 1042 P St. McGuffey's will have drink and food specialties, as well as live music.

Oscar's 819 O St. The treats at Oscars will include free champagne and beer specials.

P.O. Pears, 322 S. 9th St. Halloween music will set a ghoulish mood and there will be a costume party contest with prizes.

Royal Grove, 340 W. Cornhusker Hwy. Those spooks who do not knock on the door at the Grove will have to pay a $2 cover charge, unless they are in complete costume. There will be a costume contest and Justin Morgan will play.

The Skylight Bistro, 235 N. 11th St. A spooky atmosphere and special effects will be called upon to create a dark evening. Couples, of any type, who go to the Bistro for dinner will receive a free bottle of wine with their meal. Special effects will include a goblin menu and music.
