Who's News

Charles Godwin, associate professor of curriculum and instruction in Teachers College at UNL, has been named recipient of the Paul Beck Social Studies Educator of the Year Award by the Nebraska State Council for the Social Studies.

The award is given annually in honor of the late Paul Beck, professor of history at UNO and a one-time president of the council.

Godwin has been executive secretary of the council for five years and a member of the UNL faculty since 1967.

The Nebraska State Council for the Social Studies is an organization whose purpose is promoting and encouraging the teaching of social studies in Nebraska schools.
