Rodeo teams lasso 1st, 2nd

Deb Walker won second place overall and Jeff Oestmann and Von Svoboda won first average places as the men's and women's rodeo teams came away with top finishes in a collegiate competition in Fargo, N.D.

Walker, who took third in break away roping and second in goattving, led the women's team to a first place finish.

"We've had more total points, but we've only been able to get second and third before," Walker said. Lea Nieveen and Cathy Herstead also competed for the women's team.

The men's team finished second behind National College of Rapid City. Oestmann's victory came in the calf roping division, while Svoboda took first in bull riding. Svoboda teamed with Dale Harvey for fourth in team roping, while Lynn Nieveen was second in steer wrestling.

The rodeo club's last competition this fall is scheduled for Nov. 16-18 at Dickinson State College in Dickinson, ND.

Nine 15-10, 15-9 and comes into the playoffs rated 7th. The Gators' only loss of the season was the 4th rated Burr Three East (forfeit). Love Memorial Hall lost its only match of the season to 2nd rated Raymond Three (15-9, 15-11). AP-5 rounds out the top ten with a record of 4-1 (only loss to honorable mention Smith Eight). Honorable Mention: Smith Eight, Netbusters, Wenches.
