Sports

Volleyball team sweeps Panthers

By Ward W. Triplett III Daily Nebraskan Senioz Editor

Pittsburgh volleyball coach Shelton Collier raced his red pen across the Panther stat book for Pittsburgh had lost in three sets to Nebraska, taking the seventhranked Huskers to an extended 18-16 game in the last set. Nebraska would move on to face Western Michigan, a four-set winner over Illinois State. Pittsburgh had nowhere to go but home.

"We had several chances to win that last set . . . more than a few opportunities," Collier said. "If we had, who knows what could have happened?" But Nebraska came back on each one and played that too."

The Huskers won the first two sets 15-6, 15-10 and didn't look to be in much trouble before the last the last time of the 1984 season. set. That's when Pittsburgh started to play like the team that had won 13 of its last 14 matches and jumped to a 9-6 lead behind the serving of its two seniors Cathy Rupp and Ulana Kohutiak.

> The reason for the advantage was a Pittsburgh rotation switch and momentum, said Nebraska coach Terry Pettit. The Panthers just started doing things the way they were used to, Collier said.

The Panthers started rotating its line up in the third game other until Pitt had the serve tough. We were making adjust- because, Collier said, "when you're with a 14-13 lead. ments, but Nebraska adjusted to down two sets, you've got to try something new.

> In response, Pettit went to his bench more, putting in Michelle Smith for Julie Hermann, and little-used freshman Jenny Goff for one of his setters, Mary Buysse. That left Cathy Noth to run a 5-1 (single-setter) attack that the Huskers haven't run regularly in four years.

> With the score tied at 11. Nebraska took the lead when Hermann got a tap past the Pitt block on a play set up when Buysse thwarted with a single-fist save. The advantage wavered from one side to the week that that was the best server wise hit a set long to give Pitt in the nation," Pettit said. "That another chance to win at 16-15. serve doesn't act like a serve . . .it acts like a backcourt attack. You the ball and get it up."

The server was Rupp, who had between the block already burned the Nebraska defense for six service aces.

the fast-dropping serve near cen- Pitt forecourt for point 16. Schone ter court. After a Pitt return, wise slammed a kill off Kris Wex-Hermann saved the point with a ell's shoulder for point 17, then kill. Nebraska scored the next Dahlgren placed a kill to the left two points of the match, but lost of the Pitt defense for the final a Panther short set and spike their chance to win when one of point. the Pitt reserves, Pat Belcher, got her ninth spike of the match

'Annie Adamczak hit the next spike attempt long for another "I was telling everybody this tie at 15-15. Then, Enid Schone-

But, freshman Louise O'Shaughnessy hit the serve long. just gut it out, get anything under Nebraska didn't waste that chance. Schonewise and Karen Dahlgren This time, Hermann did dig out blocked a Kohutiak spike into the

Continued on Page 11

David Creamer/Delly Hebraska

In Nebraska sports action this weekend, at left, Nebraska wrestler Keenan Turner bears down on Iowa State's Tim Manning as referee Mike Lee signals two points. At right, Annie Adamczak (left) and Julie Hermann come down after rejecting a Pittsburgh spike. Below, Erin Hurley comes off the blocks on a leg of the Nebraska women's 400 individual medley

Husker swimmers capture invite teams rolled to impressive victo- with a time of 1:54.74. ries Saturday in the Husker Invitational.

sixth-ranked team, 624-613. Ne-402 points and Iowa State finished fourth with 356. North Dakota and Kansas sent only divers to the meet and finished with 36 and 11 points, respectively.

Nebraska dominated the women's division, scoring 1,014 points to whip second place lowa State. The Cyclones finished with 590 points, North Dakota scored 219 and Kansas wound up with Ed Jowdy led the Nebraska men, setting two meet records and qualifying for the NCAA meet in both events. Jowdy's record times came in the 200-yard backstroke (1:49.85) and the 100-yard - record time of 3:24.05.

The Nebraska men's and backstroke (50.87). He also won women's swimming and diving the 200-yard individual medley Nebraska's Pat Klaren set a meet record in the 500 freestyle, The Cornhusker men edged finishing in 4:31.13. Diver Rey-Southern Methodist, the nation's naldo Castro took the three-meter diving with a national qualifying braska was unranked entering score of 424.15, while teammate the meet. Iowa took third with Lewis Myers finished third and also qualified nationally with a score of 476.90.

> Other Husker winners included Ernie Duran in the 400 individual medley and 1,650 freestyle, Mike Edmondson in the 100 butterfly. Nebraska also took the 800 freestyle relay with a time of 6:44.45. Jeff Brown, Dave Hecker, Duran and Jon Linder comprised the winning team.

Southern Methodist set two relay team finished in a meet a meet reourd in that event, fin-

In the women's meet, Dana Powers won the 50 freestyle, the 200 individual medley and the 100 butterfly. Her 200 medley time of 2:07.65 set a meet record.

Recketts took the 500 freestyle. the 400 individual medley and the 1,650 freestyle. Her 1,650 time of 17:10 qualified as new meet record.

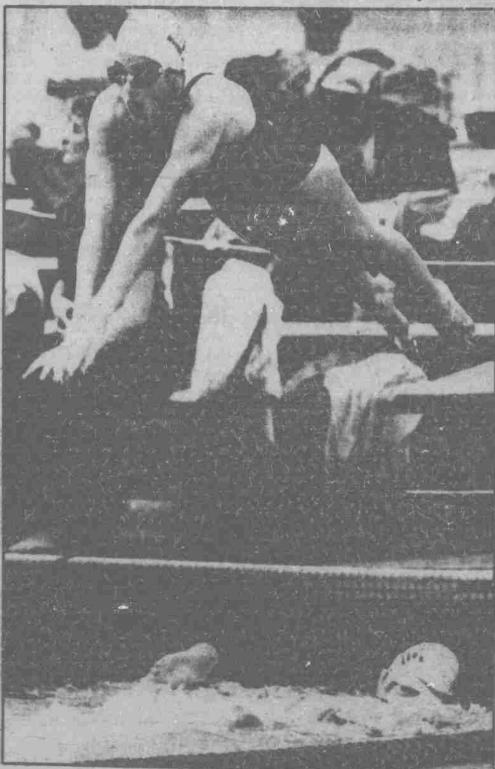

Both Powers and Ricketts had a hand in relay victories for the Huskers. Powers, Kenya Kelly, Erin Hurley and Linda Sebesta teamed up to win the 400-yard medley Ricketts, Sebesta, Kelly and Shauna Gilmore won the 800yeard freestyle relay in a meetrecord time of 7:34.41.

Other Nebraska winners inmeet records. Tom Genz won the cluded Sebesta in the 100-yard 100 breastroke with a time of freestyle, Kelley in the 200-yard 50.87, qualifying him for the NCAA backstroke, Penny Stanek in the meet. The Mustangs' 400 medley 100-yard breaststroke. Hurleytied ishing in 1:06.66.

Mark Davis/Dally Nabra

Rec Scoreboard

CO-REC BASKETBALL Kappa Delta/Theta Xi 65 (3.6), Goof-Ups 38 (4.0)

Lemmings 59 (3.5), Misfits 52 Mooners 78 (4.2), Road Warriors

77 (3.7) Joan Joyce and the Blackhearts 63 (2.7), SJR's 36 (2.7)

VOLLEYBALL

Wreck Crew def. Dummy Variables 15-3, 15-5 Phi Kappa Psi def. Beta Theta Pi 15-8, 2-15, 15-12

Delta Upsilon def. Phi Gamma Delta 15-2, 8-15, 15-1 Beta Theta Pi def. Chi Phi 16-14, 15-7

Piper Two def. Abel Eleven 15-9, 12-15, 15-9

Beta Sigma Psi def. Simga Phi Epsilon 15-1, 15-11 Triangle def. Sigma Chi 13-11,

15-9 Phi Delta Theta def. Delta Upailon 16-8, 15-8