

BATTERY SALE!

If you will need a car battery this winter now is the time to save big on a 5 yr. Quaker State Battery at Que Place Standard.

SHEER POWER

- Maintenance Free.
- Terminal corrosion virtually eliminated.
- New safety manifold vent.
- Available in top & side terminals.
- Carry out price.
- Installation Extra.

$53.95 Thru Dec. 20

Que Place Standard
17th & Que
475-8619

Open 7 Days a Week

Shorts

Graduating seniors who received National Direct Student Loans while attending the university must attend an exit interview sometime this week. They will be given in the Nebraska Union Rostrum.

The interviews will be today at 5:30 p.m., Tuesday at 10:30 a.m., Wednesday at noon and Thursday at 3 p.m.

This must be done before graduation.

Music of the holiday season will be featured in a series of concerts performed in the rotunda of the state Capitol.

The first of three lunch-hour concerts will be given Tuesday at noon by combined choirs of Lincoln Southeast High school, directed by Tim Sharer. The University Singers from the UNL School of Music will perform Wednesday at 11:45 a.m.

Thanks to you...
it works...
for ALL OF US

Wire Report

National and international news from the Reuter News Report

Disguised Iranian forces storm hijacked airliner

TEHRAN, Iran — Iranian security forces disguised as airport workers stormed a hijacked Kuwaiti airliner Sunday night, overpowered the sky pirates and freed the nine hostages aboard, the Iranian news agency IRNA said.

The hijackers killed two American hostages and wounded two others during a six-day drama at Tehran airport, IRNA said. It was not immediately known if there were any injuries during the rescue. Passengers and hijackers were seen coming down the stairs from the plane with their hands over their heads.

The Arab hijackers said they had killed four of their hostages since taking over the plane last Tuesday. But IRNA reported after their capture that nine hostages, including two Americans, were freed and they included two Kuwaiti passengers the hijackers claimed to have murdered. The hijackers took over the Kuwait Airways Airbus on a flight from Kuwait to Karachi. They had demanded the release of Shi'ite Moslems imprisoned in Kuwait for bomb attacks on the U.S. Embassy and other targets there last year. Kuwait refused the demand.

U.S. accused of rigging elections

ST. GEORGE'S, Grenada — Grenada's main opposition party Sunday accused U.S. officials of rigging elections that returned the Caribbean island to democracy 13 months after a U.S.-led invasion.

Sir Eric Gairy, leader of the right-wing Grenada United Labor Party, told reporters the party would protest the result of the election last Monday in which the New National Party of Herbert Blaize won 14 of the 15 seats. GULP candidate Marcel Peters, who won the remaining seat, has told Gov. Sir Paul Scoon he will not occupy it because of alleged vote rigging and interference in the election by outside forces.

Gairy said a member of the left-wing Maurice Bishop Patriotic Movement had discussed the protest with GULP. The MBPM forced Gairy from office in a 1979 coup.

"What we have in common is that we are both victims of rigged elections, and we believe that the Americans overdid it," Gairy said.

U.S.-led forces invaded Grenada in October 1983 to oust a Marxist government that six days earlier had overthrown Bishop's government. Bishop died in the coup.

Tutu warns of South African war

OSLO, Norway — Anti-apartheid campaigner Bishop Desmond Tutu, in Norway to collect the Nobel Peace Prize, said Sunday he had asked President Reagan to press for a political amnesty in South Africa and warned of an armed struggle in that country.

Describing himself as a "peace lover but not a pacifist," the black cleric told a press conference on his arrival here that South Africa is already in a state of civil war.

Tutu said he had told Reagan at a meeting in Washington Friday that he detected no sign so far of any improvement in the condition of South Africa's blacks as a result of the U.S. policy of "quiet diplomacy." Paying tribute to the growing wave of anti-apartheid demonstrations in the United States, Tutu said he had found a groundswell of "moral revulsion" against South African racial policy.

The 53-year-old Anglican bishop Monday will receive the $187,000 prize awarded by the Norwegian Nobel Committee for his unifying role in the campaign against apartheid.

India to receive $1 million in aid

BHOPAL, India — Union Carbide Sunday announced nearly $1 million in aid to the victims of the poison gas leak at a pesticide plant here, shortly after company Chairman Warren Anderson secretly left India.

The unofficial death toll from the leak at a Union Carbide factory has risen to 2,500, and hospital officials say at least 125,000 have been treated for injuries.

Students defy orders, stage sit-in WLOSZCZOWA, Poland — Polish students angered by the removal of crucifixes from their school have been staging a sit-in for the past week in defiance of local authorities. Several hundred students, 15 to 20 years old, are occupying rooms and corridors of a vocational school at Wloszczowa, 105 miles south of Warsaw. The dispute began Dec. 1, when pupils hung crosses in 17 classrooms and a school shop, according to the weekend edition of the local Communist Party newspaper, Slowo Ludu. Authorities removed the crosses on the grounds that schools were state property and Poland's constitution provided for separation of church and state. Slowo Ludu said the students began their sit-in two days later, boycotting classes, singing religious songs and decorating the school halls with Roman Catholic symbols.

The school, which has some 700 pupils, suspended classes until further notice after talks with the students' parents brought no result, the newspaper said.

Aren't You Hungry... ?

At These Prices

Daily Specials

Sunday $2.35

Whopper
Large French Fry
Reg. Pepsi
Save 25¢

Wednesday $2.25

Double Cheeseburger
Large French Fry
Reg. Pepsi
Save 25¢

Monday $2.39

Bacon Double Cheeseburger
French Fry
Reg. Pepsi
Save 25¢

Thursday $2.35

Whopper with Cheese
French Fry
Reg. Pepsi
Save 30¢

Tuesday $.99

Whoppers
Good at all Lincoln Locations:
52nd & "O"
27th & Dudley
48th & Holdrege
11th & Cornhusker
Hwy. 77 & Hwy. 2

Friday $2.09

Whaler
Large French Fry
Reg. Pepsi
Save 36¢

Saturday $2.39

Bacon Double Cheeseburger
French Fry
Reg. Pepsi
Save 25¢

