

Who's News

Sixteen UNL students were initiated into UNL's Alpha Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa honor society Friday in a ceremony at the Nebraska East Union.

Phi Beta Kappa is a national scholastic honorary limited to the highest-ranking students in the liberal arts and sciences.

Thomas E. Gouttierre, director of International Studies and Programs at UNL, was the featured speaker at the banquet. His topic was "Tensions in Afghanistan."

Among initiates were: John Engel of Alliance, a sophomore in the NU College of Dentistry.

Patricia Sullivan of Doniphan, a senior majoring in speech communication.

Donald Scoggins of Grand Island, a senior majoring in psychology.

Michael Pettinger of Lincoln, a senior majoring in English.

Tracey Poyer of Lincoln, a senior majoring in sociology.

Tony Schappaugh of Lincoln, a senior majoring in art and advertising.

Doris Weimer of Lincoln, a University Studies major who also works full-time at the Lincoln Regional Center.

Barbara Chantry of Omaha, a senior majoring in English and journalism.

Kathleen McMahon of Omaha, a senior majoring in political science, English and psychology.

Karen Patterson of Omaha, a senior majoring in political science.

Deborah Robinson of Omaha, a senior majoring in geology.

Cynthia Schinzel of Overton, a senior majoring in psychology and criminal justice.

Cynthia Conger of Scottsbluff, who graduated in July 1984 with a degree in news-editorial journalism.

Ward Jacobson of Stromsburg, a senior majoring in broadcast journalism.

Holly Marston of Arlington, Texas, a senior majoring in psychology.

Tsu Pearl Wong of Shanghai, China, a senior majoring in computer science and mathematics.

Seven UNL College of Agriculture students have been awarded agricultural journalism scholarships with a total value of $3,300.

Radio station KRVN of Lexington provided three $600 scholarships. They were awarded to Ron Arp of Sutton, Mark Ford of Cody and Lola Doeschot Schlake of Firth.

The Nebraska Farmer Co. provided two $300 scholarships. They were awarded to Martin Koster of Lyndon, Ill., and Janet Reece of Valentine.
