IF THERE'S LEADERSHIP IN YOU, OCS
 CAN BRING IT OUT.

OCS (Army Officer Candidate School) is a 14-week challenge to all that's in you... the mental, the physical, the spirit that are part of what makes a leader.

If OCS were easy, it couldn't do the job. It wouldn't bring out the leader in you, or help you discover what you have inside.

But when you finish and graduate as a commissioned officer in the Army, you'll know. You'll know you have what it takes to lead. And you'll be trim, alert, fit, and ready to exercise the leadership skills that civilian companies look for.

If you're about to get your degree and you want to develop your leadership ability, take the OCS challenge.

Call your local Army Recruiter, and ask about OCS.

Architects and interior designers are invited to submit entries for The Creative Ceiling Awards, two design competitions sponsored by Conwed Corporation.

Entry kits can be obtained by calling Conwed at 1-800-328-9497. "Creative Ceiling Concepts," the first and more creative of the two competitions, calls for entrants to design a ceiling using Conwed designer ceiling products. A separate category for students has been incorporated into this contest, which runs through Feb. 15, 1985.

"Creative Ceiling Constructions," the second contest, is open to professional architects and designers only. It evaluates actual projects completed with the same Conwed products at the first competition. Installations finished between June 1, 1984, and Aug. 15, 1985, are eligible.

Three industry experts will choose the winning entries. Twelve concepts and six constructions will be selected, with cash prizes totaling $45,000.

For further information, call Conwed's public relations department at 612-221-1102.

The Committee on Institutional Cooperation Minorities Fellowships Program, sponsored by 11 Midwestern universities, will award about 50 fellowships to members of underrepresented minority groups seeking doctoral degrees in social sciences, humanities, sciences, mathematics and engineering.

Each CIC Minorities Fellowship is for four years. For 1985-86, each award will pay full tuition plus a stipend of at least $6,000.

Fellowships can be used at the University of Chicago, University of Illinois, Indiana University, University of Iowa, University of Michigan, Michigan State University, University of Minnesota, Northwestern University, Ohio State University, Purdue University and the University of Wisconsin.

For complete information about who may apply, exactly what disciplines are covered and how to apply, call 1-800-457-4420.

The American Institute of Steel Construction has announced eight graduate fellowships of $5,000 each will be awarded in 1985 by the AISC Education Foundation.

The grants will be awarded to graduate civil or architectural engineering students working toward an advanced degree related to fabricated structural steel.

Fellowships will be awarded on the basis of the candidate's proposed course of graduate study, scholastic achievement and the recommendation of the engineering college faculty.

Applications are available at more than 250 colleges or universities or may be requested from the AISC Education Foundation, 400 N. Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill., 60611.

The deadline is March 1, 1985.

Nebraska 4-H members will take a mid-winter escape Jan. 12, 1985, to learn about leadership and careers and do some skiing as well.

The 4-Hers, ages 14 to 18, will go to the Eastern Nebraska 4-H Center near Gretna for the annual one-day Leadership and Career Training Program. The youths may ski at Trail Ridge and stay overnight at the center.

Cost is $10. Youths should register through their extension office.

Snow shoveling can be fun winter exercise for some, but for others it can be dangerous, if not impossible.

The American Red Cross Labor Co-op Snow Shoveling Program is looking for people to volunteer to shovel snow for others who are unable to do it themselves and who can't afford to pay to have the work done.

For more information or to volunteer call the Lancaster County Chapter of the American Red Cross at 475-5581.

A lecture on "Naturopathy and Homeopathy: Alternative Holistic Medicine," will be given Jan. 2, 1985, at 7 p.m. in the Conference Room at the Bennett Martin Library, 14th and N streets.

A lecture on preventive medicine for natural healthy living will be given Jan. 16, 1985, at the same time and place.

For more information call the library at 435-2146.
