Friday, February 8, 1985

Board

Continued from Page 1

The resolutions stem from recommendations by the Citizens Commission for the Study of Higher Education, which published a report in December listing suggestions for lawmakers. The concluded.

Baack, who said legislative neglect of western Nebraska prompted his larship injection from the general fund senatorial campaign, said the super board might consider Chadron State College an unnecessary duplication.

Baack said two programs favored by ASUN have little chance of being funded by the Legislature. The proposed $9.9 million Nebraska Future Fund would teachers." provide $3.3 million to finance the scholarship fund was established in being funded," Baack said.

1978, but the Legislature has defeated appropriations to it since. The future fund would be financed if the federal government decides to forfeit an 8-cent. cigarette tax to the state.

"I don't think that will happen," super board could save money by elim- Baack said. "There is also a group of inating "unnecessary duplication," it senators, a very strong group, that is opposed to earmarking funds."

A bill calling for a $2 million schofaces the same obstacles, Baack said.

The Eminent Scholar Fund would be used to solicit quality teachers from "That's the way most eastern Neb- outside Nebraska. It would match every raskans look at us already," Baack said. $2 in private donations or endowments with $1. Scudder said that Virginia uses a similar program and "has built" up their faculty with very qualified

"Realistically, I think any new pro-Nebraska State Scholarship Fund. The gram is going to have a tough time Daily Nebraskan

The UNL livestock judging team took fourth place overall in a field of 29 teams at the National Western Stock ics, died Jan. 28 at his Lincoln home. Show in Denver in January.

The UNL College of Agriculture students were second in the swine div-Chuck Baum of Elgin took first place in individual swine-judging competition and Larry Miller of Fremont placed third.

The team also placed fifth overall in the "oral reasons" competition.

UNL's carload judging team placed third in a field of 28 teams on Jan. 12.

Team coach and UNL extension livestock evaluation specialist Keith Gilster said he was pleased with both teams' performances.

"The competition was very tough," he said.

.... The Nebraska Chapter of Alpha Zeta, undergraduate agricultural scholastic of the university's three campuses, honorary, elected James Roberts an according to William R. Hengstler, honorary member.

Theodore T. Aakus, 88, retired UNL professor of engineering mechan-

Born May 22, 1896, in McIntosh, Minn., he taught at UNL from 1926 until his retirement in 1964. Following ision and fourth in the cattle division. retirement, he continued to teach night classes at the university until 1972.

....

Students in the northeast Nebraska communities of Verdigre, Creighton and Plainview will benefit from a $205,000 NU scholarship fund created by the families of the late A. William Hengstler and Lawrence Hengstler and the estate of Lela B. Odineal.

The initial Hengstler-Odineal scholarships will be awarded in the spring of the 1985-86 academic year with proceeds from the endowed gift to the NU Foundation.

The scholarships may be used on any spokesman for the Hengstler family.

Who's News

Page 3

Kenneth Von Bargen, UNL professor of agricultural engineering and Alpha Zeta adviser, said each chapter is allowed to elect an honorary member only once every 10 years. Roberts' election coincides with the 80th anniversary of the Nebraska Chapter.

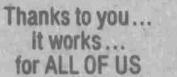

Roberts is president of the J.F. Roberts Co., a Lincoln-based commodities brokerage firm, and Roberts Cattle Co. of Lexington and Colorado.

....

The UNL Meat Judging Team recently competed in the National Western Meat Judging in Denver, in conjunction with the National Western Livestock Exposition.

100

Toni Day, UNL meat judging coach, said Nebraska placed seventh overall out of 10 teams. UNL placed second in beef judging, seventh in beef grading, eighth in specifications and ninth in both pork and lamb judging.

The Women's Resource Center offers Peer Counseling

Individual Counseling-The WRC offers short-term counseling for those who wish to discuss personal issues and concerns in a private and supportive environment. These issues may involve relationships, lifestyles, sexuality, and academic or career decisions. The counseling service is free. Call for an appointment.

WRC Groups-Groups for spring semester are now forming. Come in or call to sign up for one of the following groups or for more information.

Male/Female Relationships Lesbian Support Group Women's Personal Growth and Effectiveness

You are invited to a special Valentine Showing of 14K solid gold chains and bracelets at important savings.

SARTOR HAMANN has been selected to help dispose of the inventory of one of the nation's largest importers of fine quality chains - over six hundred chains and bracelets in all popular lengths and styles - a total value of almost a quarter of a million dollars.

ALL WILL BE SOLD AT 50% OFF THE TAGGED PRICE

These are beautiful 14K chains and bracelets in regular SARTOR HAMANN quality, not to be confused with cheaply made "sale chains".

DON'T MISS THIS GREAT SAVING

STORE HOURS FOR THIS EVENT DOWNTOWN STORE - THIS THURSDAY, FEBR. 7 & FRIDAY, FEBR. 8 GATEWAY STORE - THIS SATURDAY, FEBR. 9 & SUNDAY, FEB. 10 MAJOR CREDIT CARDS

Enclosed Mall

467-2509

1150 "O" Across from Centrum 467-8561