

SPRING BREAK IN Steamboat®

From $16.69* per person per night

The Overlook Hotel is offering a spring break special in Steamboat Springs, Colorado. Here's how it works. Check in any Sunday or Monday and stay a minimum of 3 nights and the 4th night is free. OTHER DISCOUNTS apply to longer stays. CALL TOLL FREE for all the details.

THE OVERLOOK HOTEL

Indoor Pool Hot Tub
Restaurant & Lounge Free Shuttle Service

1 (800) 752-5666

*Price is per person based on maximum occupancy — four people per room. The quoted price reflects four nights for the price of three. State and local taxes not included.

UNL Diamonddeers take double-header before traveling westward

By Jeff Apel
Staff Reporter

Nebraska baseball coach John Sanders is known for taking whatever he can get.

And Sanders did just that in his team's 16-3 and 9-3 wins over Wayne State.

The Huskers crushed the Division II Wildcats using a mixture of speed, power and clutch pitching while raising their record to 7-1.

"Anytime anyone gives us something, we'll take it," Sanders said. "That's just the type of team we are."

In the first game, the Cornhuskers "took" thirteen walks, including nine in the second inning, from Wayne State pitchers Jose Ruiz and Mark Priegnitz enroute to turning an early 2-0 deficit into a comfortable 7-2 lead after three innings.

First baseman Mike Duncan, left fielder Rich King, and catcher Bill McGuire collected six hits, seven runs, and 11 rbis between them.

Individually, Duncan led the assault on Wildcat pitching by collecting three hits in four at bats while scoring three runs and knocking in five more. Duncan, who entered the game hitting a modest .250, hit one towering fly ball which easily cleared the 390-foot right field wall to account for his second homerun of the season.

McGuire and King followed close behind. McGuire collected two extra base hits, scored two runs, and had four rbis. In the third inning, McGuire welcomed Wayne States Pregnitz, who had just come in in relief of Ruiz, with a base clearing triple after which he promptly stole home. McGuire hit his first homerun of the season in the sixth inning.

King added to the Wildcats woes by going two for three and collecting two rbis while scoring two runs. His triple in the fourth inning accounted for the Huskers 10th and 11th runs as the Cornhuskers easily crushed the Cats.

"Overall, I was really satisfied with the way we played," Sanders said. "We got to play a lot of people, so it was a good game for us."

In the nightcap, the Huskers backed the three hit pitching of Crowder Junior College transfer Jeff Mays by pounding Wayne State's Dave Lang for 10 hits.

Catcher Mark Kister led the assault on Lang by rapping two extra base hits, scoring a run, and knocking in three more.

Sophomore Paul Meyers also added to the offensive fireworks with three hits, a run, and 2 rbis. Meyers went four of seven for the day with four runs raising his sizzling .500 batting average to .516.

Nebraska was also successful on eight of nine stealing attempts in the nightcap, including three steals by right-fielder Jeff Carter who raised his team leading season total to 12.

"Overall, I was really happy with the wins," Sanders said. "We still have some areas to improve in, but right now we're just where I expected us to be which is good because the west coast trip the Cornhuskers lean for their first game of their west coast trip is going to be tough."

The Huskers leave today for Albuquerque, N.M. for the first game against New Mexico in Albuquerque, New Mexico today against New Mexico.

SWEET TALK

When words cannot express what's in your heart, say it with "cakies."

Giant personalized cookies from Cookies 'N Cream.

With advance notice, we'll bake and decorate one to your specifications. We'll even deliver it free of charge.*

"Cakies" from Cookies 'N Cream.

Think of them as a delicious alternative to the greeting card.

COOKIES
in cream

Le Metro Food Court Lower Level Atrium
12th & N St. 476-2022

*Limited delivery area.

Jeff Mays

David Bourke/Daily Nebraskan

Our Pizza is Missing a Piece of its Price!

Eat In, or Call 475-1246 for Carry-Out or Delivery Service.

One coupon per order, please. Delivery within service area.

Hurry... use this coupon Thursday, Friday, Saturday or Sunday of this week, and pay only part of the regular price.
$1.00 Off any large pizza,
50¢ Off any medium pizza
March 14, 15, 16, 17, only.

Corner of 13th & Q

PONTILLO'S PIZZERIA

Four UNL wrestlers compete for NCAA championship title

Heavyweight Gary Albright will lead five Nebraska wrestlers to the NCAA tournament, which begins today in Oklahoma City, Okla.

Iowa, top-ranked and undefeated this season, is expected to capture its ninth-straight team title. Big Eight powers Oklahoma State, Oklahoma and Iowa State are expected to battle for second.

Albright, who spent some time early this season as the nation's top-ranked heavyweight, is the only Nebraska wrestler with NCAA experience. Albright was seventh his freshman year, then returned from an injury-redshirt season to finish second to Tab Thacker of North Carolina State last year.

Nebraska's other competitors are Terry Cook (128), a freshman from Spencer, Iowa, Mike Monfore (134), a freshman from Mobridge, S.D., Bill Ferrie (142), a sophomore from Albert Lea, Minn., and Penan Turner (150), a freshman from Moeker, Colo. All four were wild-card entries.

Two other Huskers, Matt Campbell (118), and Jake Sabo (177), qualified but were dropped from the squad last week for personal reasons.

Last year, Nebraska took six wrestlers to the finals and finished fourth behind the national championships of Jim and Bill Scherr.

The Huskers finished this season with a 8-14 dual record.

American Heart Association
WERE FIGHTING FOR YOUR LIFE

AMERICAN CIGARETTE SOCIETY
Adopt a Smoker