

UPC says dance, date unrelated

By Julie Liska
Staff Reporter

Misunderstandings about the connection between the "NU date" and Video Dance on Thursday, April 4 are running wild.

Bruce Jones, of the University Program Council, said "the 'NU Date' and Video Dance are two totally separate events." You can participate in just the "NU Date," just the Video Dance or both. You do not have to participate in "NU Date" in order to go to the dance.

According to Jones, two lines will be formed for those entering the dance. One line will consist of those people who participated in "NU Date," and the other will be for those who only want to attend the dance.

Those who go through the "NU Date" line will pay $2 and get their list of the 10 most compatible people. These people can then get into the dance free. The other line will be open to the public. These people will pay $2 to get into the dance.

The dance will be co-sponsored by the Student Alumni Association and UPC, Jones said.

The SAA is sponsoring "NU Date" and will contribute $400 to UPC for the Video Dance. The only relationship between the two events is funding, Jones said.

Play auditions for 'Cabaret' to begin soon

Your chance at stardom has arrived! The award-winning musical "Cabaret" is coming to the Lincoln Community Playhouse. Auditions for this major production are from 7 to 9 p.m. March 26 and 27.

For UNL students who will not be in town because of spring break, director Michael Mitchell is making special audition arrangements. Appointments for auditions can be made March 18 to 22. Those who would like to try for a part at this time can call 489-9608 between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. to make an appointment, Mitchell said.

Auditions will be two hours long, and auditioners should bring a prepared song. Mitchell said 25 people are needed for 12 to 13 women and 12 to 13 men. Many roles require both singing and acting ability.

The 1930 love story takes place in Berlin and features a flighty English girl and a penniless American writer. Both are between 20 and 30 years old.

In addition to acting roles, backstage help will be needed with costumes, properties, make up and set construction, Mitchell said.

"Cabaret" plays from May 15 to June 9. For more information, call the Playhouse at 489-9608.

Shorts

• The Horticulture Club is sponsoring a spring bulb sale today and Friday in the East Union.

• The Denver Center Theatre Company's production of "Quilters" will be on stage at Kimball Hall on Sunday at 2 and 8 p.m.

"Quilters" is the story of America's pioneer women as revealed in the traditional patterns of their handcrafted quilts. Some of these patterns include "Double Wedding Ring," "The Rocky Road to Kansas" and "Windmill Blades." While hearing the music, legends, fantasies and actual histories collected from the quilters, the audience also sees the quilt being visually recreated by members of the cast through a series of scenic devices.
