Bowling team qualifies for nationals

The Nebraska men's bowling team won the National Collegiate Bowling Championships Sectional Four tournament by more than 331 pins over Minnesota last weekend.

The Huskers, who qualified for the national championships with the win, were led by Bob Dill and Roger Nash, who averaged 203.6 and 203.4 respectively.

It is the first time in university history that a bowling team has qualified for the national championships. Nebraska is ranked seventh in the country according to the latest Bowling Writer's Association of America poll released in March. Second-ranked Indiana, fourth-ranked St. Peter's and fifth-ranked William Patterson College did not qualify for nationals. Joining Nebraska at the finals in Milwaukee May 3 through 5 are top-ranked West Texas State, Georgia Tech, San Jose State, Arizona State, Penn State, Canisius, Vincennes, Wisconsin-LaCrosse, Central Missouri and Moorhead State.

Earn Over $1000 A Month While Still In School.

Juniors! Seniors! If you're a math, engineering or physical sciences major, you might qualify to get a check for more than $1000 every month.

It's part of the Navy's Nuclear Propulsion Officer Candidate Program. And the nearly $27,000 you can earn while still in school is just the start.

When you successfully complete your studies and become a Naval officer, you receive an additional $3,000 bonus. On top of that you receive a year of graduate-level training you can't get anywhere else at any price.

As an officer in today's Nuclear Navy you have a career advantage no civilian job can offer. The Navy operates over half the nuclear reactors in America. The early responsibility and unequalled experience you get as a member of the nuclear propulsion officer team place you among the nation's most respected professionals in one of the world's fastest growing fields.

In addition to the professional advantages, as a nuclear-trained officer, after four years with regular promotions and pay increases you can be earning as much as $47,000. That's in addition to a full benefits package.

Find out more about the unique and rewarding Nuclear Propulsion Officer Candidate Program. Call or write the Naval Management Programs Office:
