

NU track teams take their acts on the road

By Bob Asmussen
Staff Reporter

After one week at home, the Nebraska track teams will do their impression of a Willie Nelson song, "On the Road Again."

The Nebraska men's team will travel to Fayetteville, Ark., Saturday to compete in the Arkansas/Tyson Invitational. The Nebraska women's team will be split with half the team competing in the Eastern Airlines Invitational in Florida and half the team competing at the Kansas Relays in Lawrence. Nebraska Coach Gary Pepin said all three meets will provide quality competition for his team. Pepin said it is important to the team to compete against strong teams before the Big Eight championships.

"We're hoping to get some real good competition and weather at the meet in Florida," Pepin said. "There will be real strong competition in the women's distance races at the Kansas Relays. Arkansas has maybe the best men's team in the country so that should provide our men's team with great competition."

Because of some recent redshirt decisions, Pepin said, he didn't think the women's team would be a strong challenger for the NCAA championship. Pepin said Angela Thacker, Holly Ashmore, Heather Smith and Cinda Mentzer will redshirt. Pepin said Thacker's injury has improved in the last two weeks but that she will still redshirt.

Pepin said he was pleased with some of the individual performances in last week's Nebraska Invitational, but the team effort was disappointing. He said it is important for both men's and women's teams to have solid performances Saturday.

"This is the time of year when we have to get good performances," Pepin said.

Ten women will compete in the Eastern Airlines Invitational in Tallahassee, Fla. Rhonda Blanford will compete in the 100-meter dash and 100-meter hurdles. Nicole Ali will run the 800 meters, Karen Kruger the 100, 200 and long jump, Michelle Milling the 200, Belvia Moody the 400, Karyn Szarkowski the javelin, Marcia Tate the 400 and Laura Wight in the 3,000.

Blanford's time of :13.22 in the 100-meter hurdles at the Paper Tiger In-tational is the best in the event this year. Tate is competing for the first time in a month after being injured in that same meet.

Fourteen Nebraska women will compete in the Kansas Relays led by Jill Noel in the 3,000, Tammy Thurman in the high jump and Sha-Ri Pendleton and Karen Grant in the long jump.

Twenty-one members of Nebraska's men's team will compete in Arkansas. Assistant coach Jay Dirksen will coach the team that will include Glen Cunningham, Regis Humphrey and Jean Verster in the 800, Jon Claymore in the javelin, Gerard O'Callaghan and Kurt Russell in the 5,000 and Robert Metz in the long jump and triple jump.
