

Volleyball team to face national powers

Nebraska volleyball coach Terry Pettit has announced the schedule for the 1985 Nebraska volleyball team. It will include six home matches and a pair of invitationals with nationally ranked teams.

The nine time defending Big Eight Conference Champion Huskers will begin their season with a conference home-opener, hosting the University of Kansas at the Coliseum September 7 at 12:30 p.m., prior to the Nebraska-Florida

State football game.

Nebraska will continue its home stand with a Sunday, September 8 match against Iowa at 2 p.m. and a 7:30 match with Nebraska-Omaha on September 10, before traveling to the Wyoming and San Jose Invitationals the following two weekends.

On September 28 and 29, Nebraska will host the first of two invitationals featuring nationally ranked teams. The Power Volleyball classic on Friday and Saturday will bring together four of the country's top teams in Nebraska, Oregon, Brigham Young and Arizona.

The following weekend, Nebraska will host the Husker Classic with Oklahoma, SW Missouri State and Hawaii in a weekend format. Both invites will be on home football weekends and the volleyball matches will be played in the morning and again following the football games.

Season tickets are available for all Huskers games, including the invitationals, at $15 for adults and $7 for students. Single match tickets are $3 and $2.

Nebraska, which finished last season at 29-4 and ranked fifth in the nation, is returning three starters from that championship team, including Karen Dahlgren, Annie Adamczak and Enid Schonewise. Five more letter-winners will be returning in Michelle Smith, Sharon Kramer, Kathi DeBoer, Jenny Goff and Laura Hurley. Tisha Delaney, Michelle Stratbucker and Tina Siefkes, red shirts last year, will give Pettit a strong nucleus for this season.

Nebraska prep stars, Virginia Stahr, Angie Millikin and Kenda Kuehner and Springfield, Missouri standout Lori Endicott will also join the squad.
