

Alumnus to return to Nebraska as coach

Nebraska women's basketball coach Kelly Hill has announced that Sue Hansen, former girls' basketball coach at Wahoo Neumann High school will replace Holly Warlick this fall as the team's assistant coach. Warlick resigned earlier this summer to return to her alma mater, Tennessee.

A 1976 graduate of Nebraska, Hansen will join the Husker staff following a five-year stint at Neumann, where her team was the Class C runners-up as well as winning the Centennial Conference and the league tournament the last two seasons. This past season, her team posted a 24-1 record. Her career record at Neumann is 79-29.

Hansen has coached several all-conference and all-state performers at Neumann, including Mary Hohl, who will be playing for Creighton next year and Jeanne Osmera, who is headed for Stanford.

Hansen said she is anxious to return to her alma mater. "To attempt to coach at the college level has always been an aspiration of mine and it is even more appealing to return to Nebraska," she said. "I feel that I will be able to offer input in building the program and I can add something with my experiences in coaching."
