Worth the wait ...

Nebraska's "die-hard" basketball fans prove a Bruce Springsteen concert isn't the only thing students are willing to camp out for. The line for NU season basketball tickets, which began forming early Sunday evening, stretched west of Memorial Stadium and down 10th Street for about two blocks.

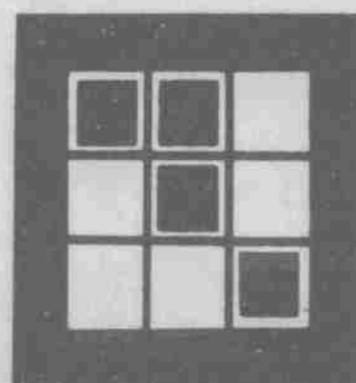

We need talented professionals

At SRI we believe that the quality of our research company is determined by the quality of each individual. That is why we hire only qualified, professionals who want to be a part of our professional environment. We need people who are energetic and self-motivated, persistent and personable. If you enjoy challenging work, you can excel at SRI.

The survey work in our communications laboratory provides an important link to America and the people. The interview gives them a voice and power in decisions that affect them every day. The listening process begins with the professional interviewer. If you have the necessary qualifications and talent combined with the desire to succeed, you may be part of SRI, the most sophisticated attitudinal research lab in America.

To apply for a market research interviewer position, contact Lori Matulka part time positions available.
