Upcoming LP due out any minute

TEX from Page 9

After the show we gave Tex a short driving tour of Lincoln en route to KZUM where she did an interview. We showed her the Capitol building to which she responded, "Why's that here?"

When asked where she was from she said, "A humble old shack in the woods."

"Like Loretta Lynn?" we ventured.

"Like Loretta Lynn's dog," she replied.

The Horseheads' first album, "Tex and the Horseheads" has been available for some time and their upcoming LP "Life's So Cool" (produced by John Doe of X) is due out any minute. The band plays in Lawrence, Kan. Saturday night where they'll be opening for X. After that a European tour is in the works.

Just a kind word for the opening band, Dance the Carpet, a local group. Three of the four-man band played around Lincoln before as Holiday and lead singer Steve Reeves used to be with Skinny. Dance the Carpet played a surprisingly sophisticated and hypnotic set of all original material patterned after British groups like The Smiths and Prefab Sprout.

Tex and the Horseheads is a great party band. It's a shame the crowd wasn't ready for that great party.
