Colorado man tours Capitol at high speed, lands in jail

By Janet Stefanski Staff Reporter

A Colorado man on a motorcycle, who wanted to see Gov. Bob Kerrey, led Lincoln police on a high-speed chase around the Nebraska State Capitol Wednesday noon.

"He wanted to see the governor and get his name in the papers," said Sgt. him," he said. Art Bandars, of the Lincoln Police Department. "He said he wanted to run was set up at 16th and K streets to stop that incident. for a public office."

streets where Lincoln police officers pulled the man off the motorcycle.

of the man, but said he is from Evergreen, Colo., and in his mid-30s. The man is being held at the Lincoln city Nebraska-Lincoln researcher said.

istration and littering because he the man, and noon-hour traffic was 🛠 reportedly threw his helmet on the temporarily halted. ground.

officer," Bandars said.

The man failed to stop for red lights or yield to pedestrians, Bandars said.

"Pedestrians were trying to avoid

A road block of about five cruisers

The incident ended at 16th and K NU geologist studies Nebraska landslides

Bandars would not release the name billion in damages and about 24 fatali- year inventory of Nebraska landslides. ties annually across the nation, have because of a national program of the led to an investigation, a University of U.S. Department of the Interior.

reckless driving, assault, improper reg- UNL Conservation and Survey division, flows, rock falls and rock topples.

At the scene of the incident, passer-"He tried to drive over a police bys, many of whom were on their lunch hours, stopped to watch the man circle 🕸 the Capitol.

> A citizen told a Lincoln police officer about the man's reckless driving. Someone else reported that the man had been driving around the airport earlier, Bandars said. No charges were filed in Landslides, which cause over $1.5 said he is conducting a 11/2 to 2-

Types of landslides, or land move-Duane A. Eversoll, associate profesment, in Nebraska include: rotational He was charged with fleeing arrest, sor and research geologist with the and transitional slides, lateral spreads,

Friday, Sept. 20th

THE HAPPY HOUR LOUNGE 444444444444444444444444

Shorts

The actuarial science club will have Franchise Studies will meet at UNL their annual picnic Sunday at Cooper today through Saturday. Park, Sixth and D streets. Admission is free for club members and $2 for nonmembers. New members are welcome. For more information, contact a club officer or Warren Luckner in Burnett include Lyn Grasz, a UNL graduate who Hall 311.

sponsor a time management workshop today from 3:30 to 4:20 p.m. in the during a convocation Oct. 14 at 10 a.m. Nebraska Union. Room number will be Haun will present and donate to UNL posted. Contact 472-1481 for more her collection of foreign ceremonial details.

lecture with slides by Norman Ham- throughout the week. mond, professor of archaeology and director of the archaeology research program at Rutgers University, will be People, a social organization for handiin Bessey Auditorium at 3 p.m. Friday. capped and able-bodied students, are

Council for the International Center for call 472-3417 for more information.

The College of Home economics will sponsor Home Economics Week from Oct. 14 through 18. Guest speakers will works at the National Association of Broadcasters television information The Education Learning Center will office in New York, and Natalie Haun, a UNESCO employee. Grasz will speak costumes Oct. 18 at 2 p.m. Both events will be in the East Union Great Plains "New Light on the Ancient Maya," a Room. Other events also are scheduled

Applications for People Who Need due Friday. Contact the Affirmative The Industry and Academic Advisory Action Office, Teachers College 103 or

ALL FLASH

We pay top dollar for your plasma at

2021 "O" St. 474-2335

☆FREE PARKING! ☆CASH BONUSES AVAILABLE

> HOURS: MON. 9-5, TUES. 9-6, WED. 9-5 THURS, 9-6, FRI, 8-4, SAT, 8-2

Bring This Coupon for an Extra $5

on Your First Donation.

Thursdays, 4 pm-1 am

HAPPY HOUR PRICES ON MARGARITAS

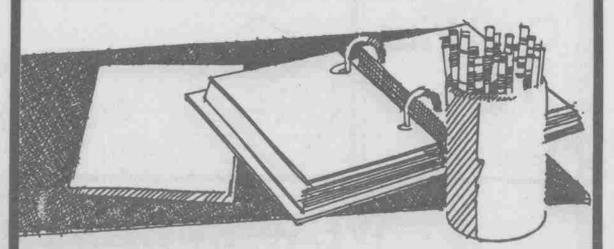

Try one of our fantastic Mexican pizzas. 1/2 price for one or, (if you can't get enough), 2 for the price of one.

75° DRAWS 3 PITCHERS

201 North 66th St. Phone: 464-8281

HOMEWORK!

Get the facts about part-time jobs in your community Naval Reserve. Learn and earn! Tuition assistance, extra income, travel, experience.

Call 470-2136 today.