Audition to be a 'Fool for Love'

The Lincoln Community Playhouse announces auditions for the Gallery Theatre production of "Fool for Love" by Sam Shepard at 7 p.m. Monday at the playhouse, 2500 South 56th St.

The Obie award-winning play will be directed by David Chapelle. Intense and caustic, human and funny, "Fool for Love" is a story of dangerous passion, set in a seedy western motel. Eddie, a cocky cowboy, has returned to rekindle his affair with fiery May, who has other plans. Martin, May's slightly dim date, and the Old Man, a memory for both May and Eddie, each figure in the revelation of this doomed relationship.

Auditions, consisting of cold readings, will be for three male roles, ranging in age from late 20s to early 50s, and one female role, late 20s to early 30s. Auditioners should be available for callbacks on Wednesday, Oct. 2

For more information, call the playhouse at 489-9608.
