Omaha

Larry Omaha, a Chicano comedian, will appear in the Nebraska Union Ballroom Saturday night from 7 to 9 p.m., as part of the Chicano Arts Festival.

Omaha, who is from Omaha, has been a regular at the Comedy Store and the Improvisation in Los Angeles and a favorite on the college concert and comedy circuit. Omaha has opened for such people as Jay Leno, Henny Youngman, and Earth, Wind and Fire.

After just 36 months as a comic, Larry Omaha's subtle but razor sharp wit has garnered him increasing attention as an up-and-coming talent. Using his acting skills and his Hispanic background, he brings to life sketches of contemporary society.

In the 1984 L.A. Comedy Competition, Omaha was ranked in the top ten.

Tickets for the show are $2 for students and $3 for non-students.

Building questions are 'no problem'

Basic human needs also are met in this plan. Perhaps, with some thought, our nation's preoccupation with the idea of limited nuclear war could be satiated. Contractors gotta build things, Regents gotta spend, fish gotta swim, birds gotta fly.

You say, sure, but what about those heinous, venal human traits that we all must satisfy in one way or another, some in closets, others in the boardroom. Well, you don't think I'd forget about avarice, greed and atavism, do you?

All this contracting, building and money changing from sweaty palm to sweaty palm is sure to breed just the sort of general corruption the California Gold Rush or the economic upsurge of the '20s bred. What fun. What satisfaction. No problem.
