'Iron' life rivals fiction

BODIES from Page 8

There is a good deal of humor in the film, and it is strange how these women could go about leading normal lives with all these cameras around. At the same time, it becomes hard to believe that real life can be so interesting. I think George Butler, the filmmaker, was just plain lucky.

Go see it — it's good entertainment — and this recommendation is coming from someone who doesn't even like bodybuilding.

Here is a complete schedule of documentaries showing at the Sheldon this weekend:

Thursday

1 p.m. — "The Electric Valley," by Ross Spears (USA, 1983, 92 minutes);
 3 p.m. — "A New Spirit in Painting" (USA, 1983, 58 minutes) and Beyond Utopia (USA, 1984, 58 minutes), both by Michael Blackwood;
 7 p.m. — "Pumping Iron II: The Women," (USA, 1985, 107 minutes) by George Butler;

 9 p.m. — "Burroughs," (USA, 1983, 86 minutes) by Howard Brookner.

Friday

1 p.m. — "Seventeen," (USA, 1982, 120 minutes) by Joel De Mott and Jeff Kreines;
 3:15 p.m. — "Dark Circle," (USA, 1982, 82 minutes) by Chris Beaver and Judy Irving.

EVEN BEFORE FINALS, YOU COULD FINALLY GET THE AMERICAN EXPRESS CARD.

If you've been wanting the American Express® Card for some time, this is some time to apply. Because if you're a senior, all you need is to accept a $10,000 career-oriented job. That's it. No strings. No gimmicks. (And even if you don't have a job right now, don't worry. This offer is still good for 12 months after you graduate.) Why is American Express making the Card a little easier for seniors to get? Well, to put it simply, we believe in your future. And this is a good time to show it—for we can help in a lot of ways as you graduate. The Card can help you be ready for business. It's a must for travel to meetings and entertaining. And to entertain yourself, you can use it to buy a new wardrobe for work or a new stereo. The Card can also help you establish your credit history, which can help in your future. So call 1-800-THE-CARD and ask to have a Special Student Application sent to you. Or look for one on campus. The American Express® Card. Don't leave school without it.™
