'L'Argent' at Sheldon

Robert Bresson's "L'Argent" will show at the Sheldon Film Theatre tonight at 7 and 9 p.m. as part of the UPC Foreign Film Series.

Bresson is one of the most influential film directors in the illustrious history of French cinema. "L'Argent" was made in 1983, when the director was 76 years old.

Admired by old guard filmmakers like Jean Cocteau and Jean Renoir as well as French New Wave directors like Truffaut and Godard, Bresson's career has literally spanned the entire history of French cinema, from the early 1930s until the present.

"L'Argent" is about materialism, corruption of the soul and moral errors in judgment. These themes all revolve around the passing of a counterfeit 500-franc note.

Admission to the film is $3.75 general admission, $2.75 for students and by Foreign Film Series ticket.

Movie blurs fact

If you can distinguish reality there are some things about this film worth noting. The aerial dogfights are well done, as good as any I've ever seen. And Gossett turns in his usual strong performance.

If you're looking for entertainment, "Iron Eagle" might be what you're looking for, but don't confuse it with real life. You might try to bomb Libya with your Chevy.
