

New NCAA rule hinders Husker recruiting

By Jeff Apel
Senior Reporter

A new ruling by the NCAA has had a definite impact on this year's Nebraska recruiting class, Cornhusker coach Tom Osborne said.

Although Nebraska collected signatures of 14 recruits on Wednesday, Osborne said that the new rule, Proposition 48, has cut the nationwide pool of prospective recruits by 35 to 40 percent.

Under the rule, incoming freshmen from every division I school must meet or exceed three mandatory requirements in order to be a scholarship athlete.

Those requirements include 11 "core" courses in English, math, or the natural and social sciences, a minimum grade point average of 2.0 for all of the core courses and a minimum score of 15 on the ACT or a 700 on the SAT.

"I think there are a lot of good athletes who can do college work but who do not test well," Osborne said. "We've gone back into our files and found that some of our players have scored a nine or ten on their ACT's and gone on to earn college degrees."

Osborne said that he is confident that the 14 players already signed by Nebraska will meet the academic standards and abide by their signatures on their letters of intent.

Nebraska, Osborne said, had originally offered at least 20 scholarship offers but six of those players could not meet the Proposition 48 requirements.

Those players include defensive back Robert Hicks, defensive end Shane Lair, quarterback/defensive back Leon Otis, wingback/defensive back Darwin Snyder, defensive back Barry Thomas and fullback Billy Williams.

The players that Nebraska has signed are:

Paul Brungardt, an offensive/defensive lineman from Battle Creek

Chris Caliendo, a 210-pound line-backer from Brookfield, Wis.

Jon Crippen, a defensive back from Houston, Texas

Gerry Gdowski, a 6-2 quarterback from Fremont

Doug Glaser, a 6-7, 290-pound offensive lineman from Mesquite, Texas

Gregory Morgan, a split end from Denver, Colorado

Kurt Hasley, a 6-3 defensive lineman from De Witt

Karl Hroza, a defensive back from Columbus

Jeff Miller, a 210-pound quarterback from Houston, Texas

Tom Punt, a 6-8 defensive lineman from Sioux City, Iowa

Pat Tyrance, a tight end from Omaha

Kenny Walker, a defensive end from Crane, Texas

Rick Wendland, a defensive back from Topeka, Kansas and Jake Young, a 6-5 offensive lineman from Midland, Texas.
