Huskers score in NCAA meet, Arkansas, Alabama win titles

From Staff and wire reports

Behind the performances of the 3,200-meter relay team, Linetta Wilson and Angela Thacker, the Nebraska women's track team garnered nine points in the NCAA Track and Field Championships in Oklahoma City, Okla., last weekend.

Nebraska men's track team earned four points from junior Jean Verster and his fourth place finish in the mile run. He ran a 4:04.24.

The women's 3,200-meter relay team broke the school record twice during the weekend. On Friday, the foursome of Michelle Milling, Jill Noel, Heidi Christiansen and Nicole Ali ran an 8:41.75 breaking the old mark of 8:46.45. The next night, the foursome again broke the record with a fourth-place finish in the finals with an 8:39.37.

Wilson, a freshman from Altadena, Calif., finished sixth in the 500-meter run and Thacker, a senior All-American, finished sixth in the 55-meter dash.

Led by brilliant sophomore Roddie Haley, the first runner to break one minute in the 500-meter race, and distance runner Paul Donovan, the Arkansas men captured a record-tying third consecutive NCAA title.

The sensational 21-year-old Haley, from Texarkana, Texas, broke the world indoor best in the 500 for the second consecutive night, clocking 59.82 seconds — the first sub-one minute time in history.

Friday night, Haley, the 1985 NCAA outdoor 400-meter champion, had run 1:00.69 in the heats.

Saturday night, he led all the way against a strong field, including Villanova's Edwin Modibedi, who also ran under the old world indoor best, clocking 1:00.24.

It was the third time Haley has run the 500 this year, and the third time he had smashed the world indoor best.

Buoyed by Haley's remarkable performance, and victories by Donovan in the 3,000-meter race and the 3,200-meter relay team, with a startling comeback by Donovan on the final leg, the Razorbacks amassed 49 points in the two-day meet at the Myriad.

Arkansas is the second school to win three straight NCAA indoor titles, joining Texas-El Paso, which did it twice from 1974-76 and 1980-82.

Villanova was second with 22 points, and Georgetown and Boston University tied for third with 20 each.

Alabama was the winner of the women's championship, capturing its first indoor crown with a total of 41 points.

Favored Texas finished second with 31, and Southern California and Tennessee tied for third with 26 each.

Donovan, a senior who won the NCAA indoor 1,500-meter title last year, took the 3,000 this year in 7:54.60, after coming from third place around the final turn to give the Razorbacks the victory in the 3,200-meter relay in 7:20.72.

In that closing drive in the relay, Donovan passed Georgetown's Miles Irish and Notre Dame's Jim Tyler, with a surprising kick for a long-distance runner.

Donovan's victory in the 3,000 clinched the title for Arkansas.

Nebraska freshman Cathy Cassanos took second in the all-around, scoring a 36.70. She scored a 9.25 on the vault; a 9.35 on the uneven bars; 8.75 on the balance beam; and 9.35 on the floor exercise.

The Huskers, now 10-5 on the year, go into the Big Eight Championships next weekend in Oklahoma City, Okla., tied for first in the conference with Oklahoma. Nebraska and Oklahoma are both undefeated in Big Eight competition.

"The one thing we have going for us heading into the Big Eight meet is our consistency," Walton said. "If we get everything together, we'll be capable of scoring a 184."

"I think this meet helped build our confidence for the Big Eight meet," Jeaneane Smith said.

The Huskers injury situation still hasn't cleared up completely.

"Renee (Gould, the team captain) got her cast off last week (Gould sprained her right hand during competition in Tempe, Ariz. February 21), but we won't know about her situation until Tuesday," Walton said. "Racine Smith is still having problems with her back, and Cathy Cassanos still has shin splints."

The Huskers finished off their final 1986 home meet by doing a dance routine to Eddie Murphy's song "Party All The Time" while their scores were being tabulated. The Huskers dedicated the routine to 1984 Olympic alternate Jim Mikus.
