Revenge on the mind of Cornhusker kicker

By Jeff Apel
First Down Editor

A year of frustration finally will be bent when the Nebraska football team faces Florida State in a nationally televised contest Saturday night.

Nebraska kicker Dale Klein, who last year missed a 31-yard field goal against the Seminoles, said revenge will be a key factor in how well the Huskers perform in Nebraska's first-ever night game at Memorial Stadium.

Klein said none of the Cornhuskers have forgotten what happened in last year's Nebraska-Florida State match-up. The Cornhuskers committed three costly turnovers and were assessed with 46 yards in penalties enroute to dropping a season opening 17-13 decision to the Seminoles.

"We outplayed them (the Seminoles)," Klein said. "We just hurt ourselves with mistakes."

Klein said Nebraska football coach Tom Osborne has emphasized throughout the week that Florida State is one of the few teams to hold an advantage in their series against Nebraska. The Seminoles took a 2-1 lead in the three-game series with their victory last year. Florida State won the initial game of the series with an 18-14 upset, but Nebraska evened the score a year later when they posted a 34-14 victory.

"Everyone wants to win this game," Klein said.

Klein said he has confidence in his abilities as the Cornhuskers' No. 1 place kicker this fall.

During Nebraska's workout in the rain on Tuesday, Klein said he was kicking "fairly well" even though all the Husker kickers were plagued by damp, slippery kicking surfaces.

"It wasn't the best of conditions," Klein said.

Klein said he is hoping to get his season started off on the right foot by not enduring the bad breaks he suffered through at the beginning of last year.

After being unsuccessful on his first four field goal tries of 1985, Klein kicked a Husker record 13 field goals. He also set a National Collegiate Athletics association record last year against Missouri when he connected on all seven of his field goal attempts.

"I was kicking good then (at the beginning of the season)," Klein said. "But I just wasn't getting the breaks. This year, I'm hoping to get the breaks."
