

UNL Theatre 'package' cuts costs

By Betty Ciernoczolowski
Staff Reporter

The UNL Department of Theatre Arts and Dance has announced that tickets are now on sale for the 1986-87 season.

This year, ticket prices have increased slightly, the first increase in many years. General admission tickets now cost $8, while student tickets cost $6. Season tickets are available in three cost-saving packages.

●"Mainstage Pops" is a package which includes, "Celebration," "Flea in Her Ear," "Dancing Gershwin," "Private Lives," and "Midsummer Night's Dream." The cost is $24 for students and $32 for non-students. The cost of this package is 20 percent below the price of buying tickets individually.

●The "Two plus Two" package offers the "Chekhov in Yalta," "Fifth of July" and your choice of five other plays. Student cost is $22 and non-students will be charged $29. Cost savings is 10 percent.

●The "Theatre Lover" package consists of all seven shows for $30 for students and $40 for non-students, a 30 percent savings.

Season tickets are exchangeable as late as two days in advance for any performance if tickets are still available.

With the "Theatre Lover" series, ticketholders can choose their own seats and the nights they want to see the performances. Also, all tickets will be mailed before the season begins.

Fifteen minutes before curtain time on show nights, any remaining tickets that are available are released.

Any UNL student can usher. Interested students can sign up at the box office on the first floor of the Temple Building.

Ushers are required to be at the theatre one hour early. The house manager will explain the floor plan.

Subscription deadline is Oct. 25 for season tickets. For more information, stop by the box office between noon and 5 p.m. or call 472-2073.

THE VERANDAS

THE FINNSTARS

THE FRONT

THE BANDS

Omaha's "The Front" will kick off the party at 7:00 and then those deacons of hyperactivity "The Verandas" will follow. Then Lincoln's own favorite "The Finnstars" will prime for the main attraction, "Jason & the Scorchers". You say, "more excitement than a human should be allowed to have?" Maybe.

Two world tours in 1984 established JASON AND THE SCORCHERS as a premier live act which had to be seen to be believed. Critics and audiences alike have lauded the authenticity of their Nashville-colored, American roots rock 'n roll.

Since their inception, JASON AND THE SCORCHERS have gained legions of fans with legendary live show, "Reckless Country Soul" EP and "Fervor" EP. In 1984 JASON AND THE SCORCHERS signed with EMI America Records resulting in their latest smash album, "Lost and Found".
