State of the Arts

At Kimball:

The Pride of all Nebraska, the Cornhusker Marching Band, performs tonight and Saturday at Kimball Recital Hall. Certainly the acoustics will be better at Kimball than at Memorial Stadium, so this is a chance to hear the band loud and clear. Performances are at 8 p.m., and tickets are $5 for adults and $3 for students of high-school age or younger. Tickets are available at the band office (Westbrook Music Building 123) or at Kimball Box Office.

American Films:

Perhaps Elvis' best film, if such a thing exists, shows tonight in the Nebraska Union. "Jailhouse Rock" features that immortal line, "Lady, I'm sure I don't know what the hell you're talking about!" Show times are 7 and 9 p.m.

On TV:

Why would anyone want to miss the immortal classic "The Blob" tonight at 7 p.m. on WGN, channel 2? Steve McQueen plots to destroy the hideous blob from outer space and save humanity. On a scale of one to five, this film would rate a 12.

Holiday event at Sheldon includes ice, tree-trimming

Sheldon Memorial Art Gallery, 12th and R Streets, will celebrate the opening of its Christmas exhibition with a Holiday Spectacular from 1 to 4 p.m. Sunday.

The public is invited to bring an ornament for the Sheldon Gallery's holiday tree and to take part in the annual tree-trimming party.

This year an ice sculpture will be part of the Holiday Spectacular. The ice castle will be completed and in place outside the Sheldon Art Gallery by the time the Holiday Spectacular begins.

Other activities scheduled for the event include appearances by choral groups from each of Lincoln's four high schools. The Lincoln High group will sing at 1:15 p.m., Northeast at 2 p.m., Southeast at 3 p.m. and East at 3:45 p.m. There also will be performances by young people from the Lincoln City Ballet Company.

'Plague of Allos' dull

The unquestionable low point of the book comes from fan-favorite Piers Anthony. Anthony is an incredibly graceless and inept writer, and I find his phenomenal popularity sad and confusing. His story, "Plague of Allos," is dull, contrived and silly.

This is a must-have for "Elfquest" fans. I don't recommend that people who have never read the comic start here, but most science-fiction fans probably will get something from this book. "Thieves World" admirers, in particular, probably will have a great time reading "Blood of Ten Chiefs."
