Husker freshmen being counted on

Nebraska won 41-7 over UNO last year, but Neumann expects things to be different once action gets underway tonight at 7:30.

"I really anticipate that it will be a lot closer this year," he said. "They've gotten several quality kids from the junior-college ranks and with junior-college kids they have not had to put up with the freshman adjustments when they come in. We have a lot of freshmen wrestling because we are redshirting four starters."

One freshman who has shown a lot of promise so far, according to Neumann, is 118-pounder Jason Kelber, who has compiled a 7-4 record this season. The problem with Kelber, as with most freshmen, has been consistency, Neumann said.

"Our freshmen have not been consistent," Neumann said. "They've shown spots of greatness at times and at other times they have wrestled like freshmen. Kelber beat the No. 4 rated guy at Northern Iowa in the first round and then he lost to a kid from a Division III school, so their performances have not been consistent."

Neumann can count on the performance of 134-pound senior Gil Sanchez, who raised his season record to 21-1 with a win at the Northern Iowa Open last weekend. Sanchez claimed an 11-2 decision over Olympic silver medalist and three-time NCAA champion Barry Davis in the finals.

"It would be nice to have great fan support because most of their wrestlers at UNO have two or three years of college experience. A good crowd could put some life in our team," Neumann said.
