Jackson to address Model UN

By Amy Edwards
Staff Reporter

The Rev. Jesse Jackson will speak at the 20th annual conference of the Nebraska Model United Nations Feb. 11 at 8 p.m. in the Nebraska Union Centennial Room. Jackson will speak on "The Power of the Individual."

The conference is a meeting of high-school and college students from Lincoln, Omaha, elsewhere in Nebraska and out of state. In a mock trial of the United Nations Conference, the students debate current international issues ranging from nuclear disarmament to world hunger. The students learn debating skills and parliamentary procedure as they research and apply policies and preferences of the countries they represent.

Usually 40 to 65 delegates attend the conference, said Michelle Garwood, secretary-general of the Nebraska Model United Nations. Any student wishing to take part in the conference can apply at the CAP office in the Nebraska Union.

In addition to Jackson's speech, there will be a delegate reception at Chesterfield, Bottomsley and Potts on Feb. 12 and a 20th birthday party Feb. 13 in the Nebraska Union.

The public is invited to attend Jackson's speech. UNL students will be admitted free with a ticket, and general admission is $3. Tickets will be available beginning at noon, Monday, through Feb. 6 in the CAP office, Nebraska Union 200.

Lincoln plans 'Heart of City' weekend

Mayor Roland Luedtke has proclaimed Feb. 7 and 8 as the first annual "Heart of the City Weekend."

Although the event encourages visitors to come to Lincoln, advertisements are aimed mainly at Lincolinites.

"We can enjoy our own city... and celebrate downtown ourselves. Downtown is the heart of Lincoln," Luedtke said.

Activities will include city tours, a Sweetheart Ball for the American Heart Association and a Chocoholic Buffet sponsored by the Lincoln Haymarket Association. Special rates for the Clayton House, Cornhusker and Hilton hotels are available to 'get away from it all.'

Heart attack or stroke could knock you down on your way up.

The American Heart Association is fighting to reduce early death and disability from heart disease and stroke.

You can help us save young lives by sending your dollars today to your local Heart Association, listed in your telephone directory.
