Internship Opportunities

For more information on summer internships, contact the Internship Office, Administration Building 121.

Upper-level and graduate students can intern with franchising organizations. Placements are located in Omaha and out of town. Applicants must be members of the Franchising Club and view the videotape "The Basics of Franchising."

An agency that offers job counseling for older workers seeks a student interested in working with the employment needs of this population group. "Non-traditional" students are preferred.

Students from human-service disciplines can gain valuable group skills and knowledge by facilitating group discussions for women and children in a program serving victims of domestic abuse.

Agronomy and agriculture students seeking summer placement should contact Dick Delorie at 472-1549.

Students who still have not registered for possible summer internships should make an appointment in the Internship Office before spring break. Those wanting fall internships who will not be on campus this summer should see an adviser in the Internship Office before April 15.
